MARSH FAMILY.

Martin Genealogy. Vol. I.

Descendants of Lieut. Samuel Martin, of Wethersfield, Conn.

Compiled by Thomas Arthur May.

- I. John Marsh, one of the original proprietors of Hartford, Conn., 1639, and later of Hadley, Mass. He was born in England, probably about 1618. He married at Hartford, about 1642, Anne Webster, daughter of Hon. John Webster.

In 1659, he joined with his father-in-law in the purchase of land and the settlement of Hadley, Mass. From thence he moved to Northampton, where he united with the church June 18, 1661.

She died at Northampton June 9, 1662.

He died while on a visit to his daughter, Hannah Loomis, at Windsor, Conn. His name is inscribed on the public monument in Hartford, erected to the memory of its first settlers.

Children of John Marsh and Anne Ward, all born in Hartford:

2. 1. John Marsh, 2nd., born about 1643; married Nov. 28, 1666, Sarah Lyman. They were living in Hadley, Mass., in 1722. She died at Hartford about 1727.
3. II. Samuel Marsh, born about 1645; married Mary Allison.
4. III. Joseph Marsh, baptised Jan. 23, 1647, died in infancy.
5. IV. Joseph Marsh, baptised July 15, 1649, of whom later.
6. V. Jonathan Marsh, born 1650; married widow Dorcas Dickenson.
7. VI. Daniel Marsh, born 1653; married Hannah Lewis.
8. VII. Hannah Marsh, born 1655; married June 28, 1675 Joseph Loomis.
9. VIII. Grace Marsh, born 1657; married Jan. 26, 1673, Timothy Baker, of Northampton. She died May 21, 1676.

He married second, Oct. 7, 1664, Hepzibah, widow of Richard Lyman, of Northampton, and daughter of Thomas Ford. She died April 11, 1683.

He removed to Hartford, where he died Sept. 28, 1688.

Child by second marriage, and one adopted:

10. I. Lydia Marsh, born Oct. 9, 1657; married Dec. 8, 1682, Loomis, of Windsor.
11. II. Grace (Martin) Marsh, adopted; married Nathaniel Phelps.

4. Joseph Marsh, fourth child of John Marsh and Anne Webster, was baptised at Hartford July 15, 1640. He married, in 1696, Hannah -----, who was born in 1676, and died in 1720, aged forty-five years.

Children:

11. 1. Elizabeth Marsh, baptised 1697.
12. II. Joseph Marsh, born 1699.
13. III. Anne Marsh, born about 1701; married Feb. 14, 1722 or 1723, Samuel Webster, son of George Webster and Sarah Bliss.
14. IV. Hannah Marsh, born ~~1704~~ 1704.
15. V. Peltiah Marsh, born 1707.
16. VI. Sarah Marsh, born 1710.
17. VII. Jonathan Marsh, born 1713.

Webster Family.

1. Hon. John Webster, founder of Hartford, Conn., and Wethersfield, Mass. (Governor), was born in Warwick County, England.

In 1635 he came to Cambridge, Mass., with his wife, Agnes, and their five children, Robert, Mathew, Anne, Elizabeth and Mary.

During the same year, with Rev. Thomas Hooker, Mr. Stone and others, he organized a company for the purpose of founding a colony on the banks of the Connecticut river. In June, 1636, this company, of over one hundred men, women and children, started out for their goal. Their route lay, for more than 100 miles, through a hideous and trackless wilderness, over mountains, through swamps, across rivers; some of which they forded, crossing others on rudely constructed rafts; carrying their worldly possessions in packs, including arms, ammunition and household utensils; driving before them their flocks and herds, consisting of 160 head of cattle; subsisting on game and fish and the milk of their cows.

Mrs. Hooker, who was an invalid, was carried on a covered litter, much resembling an elongated Sedan Chair, and borne by two horses in tandem. In about two weeks, they reached their destination, which is the site of the present city of Hartford.

John Webster was one of the committee who for the first time sat with the Court of Magistrates in 1637.

In 1642, he was one of a committee to frame criminal laws for the Colony.

For twenty years he was annually chosen into the Magistracy of Connecticut.

He was elected on the commission for the United Colonies in 1654. At the election, in Hartford, May 17th, 1655, he was chosen Deputy Governor. In 1656, he was elected Governor, being the fifth Colonial Governor of Connecticut. The rule being that no Governor could succeed himself, in 1657, he was chosen Chief Magistrate.

In 1659, he with his three sons, Robert, William and Thomas, were associated in the purchase of land for and in the settlement of Hadley, Mass., which was a direct outgrowth from Hartford and Wethersfield.

He died in Hadley, April 5th, 1681, leaving quite a handsome estate. His name, with those of John Marsh, Timothy Stanley and others, is inscribed on the public Monument to the earliest settlers in Hartford.

Agnes, his wife, survived him, and died in Hartford.

They had four sons and three daughters. Authorities differ widely as to the order of their birth, and also as to which were born in England, but the weight of evidence appears to be in favor of the following order:

2. I. Robert Webster, born in England. He, with his father, settled in Hartford and Hadley, and later in Middletown. He married in 1637, Susanna Treat. He was made a Lieutenant in 1654; was in King Philip's war in 1675; was Town Clerk and Representative in 1657. He died at Hartford in 1676.
3. II. Mathew Webster, born in England; resident of Hartford, and, later, householder of Farmington, Conn.; died July 16, 1675, leaving one son, John.
4. III. Anne Webster, born in England, circa 1628; married in 1642, John Marsh of Hartford (see previously). She died June 9, 1682.
5. IV. Elizabeth Webster, born in England; married William Markham, of Hartford and Hadley. She died in 1638.
6. V. Mary Webster, born in England; married Jonathan Hunt, of Northampton. She died prior to 1659. Their descendants lived in Northampton.
7. VI. William Webster, born in Hartford, in 1636, resident of Hartford and Hadley; married Feb. 17, 1670, Mary Reeves, daughter of Thomas Reeves, of Springfield.

[The text on this page is extremely faint and illegible due to fading or bleed-through from the reverse side. It appears to be a continuous block of text, possibly a letter or a page from a book.]

In 1684 or 1685, she was accused of witchcraft, and was taken to Boston for trial, and was acquitted.

He died at Hadley in 1698. She died in 1696.

6. VII. Thomas Webster, born at Hartford, 1688, of whom later.

7. Lieut. Robert Webster, Middletown, eldest child of Hon. John and Agnes Webster, was born in England. He, with his father, settled in Hartford and Hadley, and later in Middletown. He married in 1652, Suzana Treat. He was made a Lieutenant in 1654; was in King Philip's War in 1675; was Town Clerk and Representative in 1657. He died at Hartford in 1676.

Children (several), of whom the eldest was:

8. I. John Webster, who was the great grandfather of Dr. Noah Webster, the renowned lexicographer.

8. Thomas Webster, founder of Hadley, youngest child of Hon. John and Agnes Webster, was born at Hartford in 1688. In 1659, he joined his father and brothers, Robert and William, in the settlement of Hadley.

In 1681, he and his brother William, fell heirs to his father's lands in Hadley.

He married, June 15, 1683, Abigail Alexander, daughter of George Alexander, of Northampton.

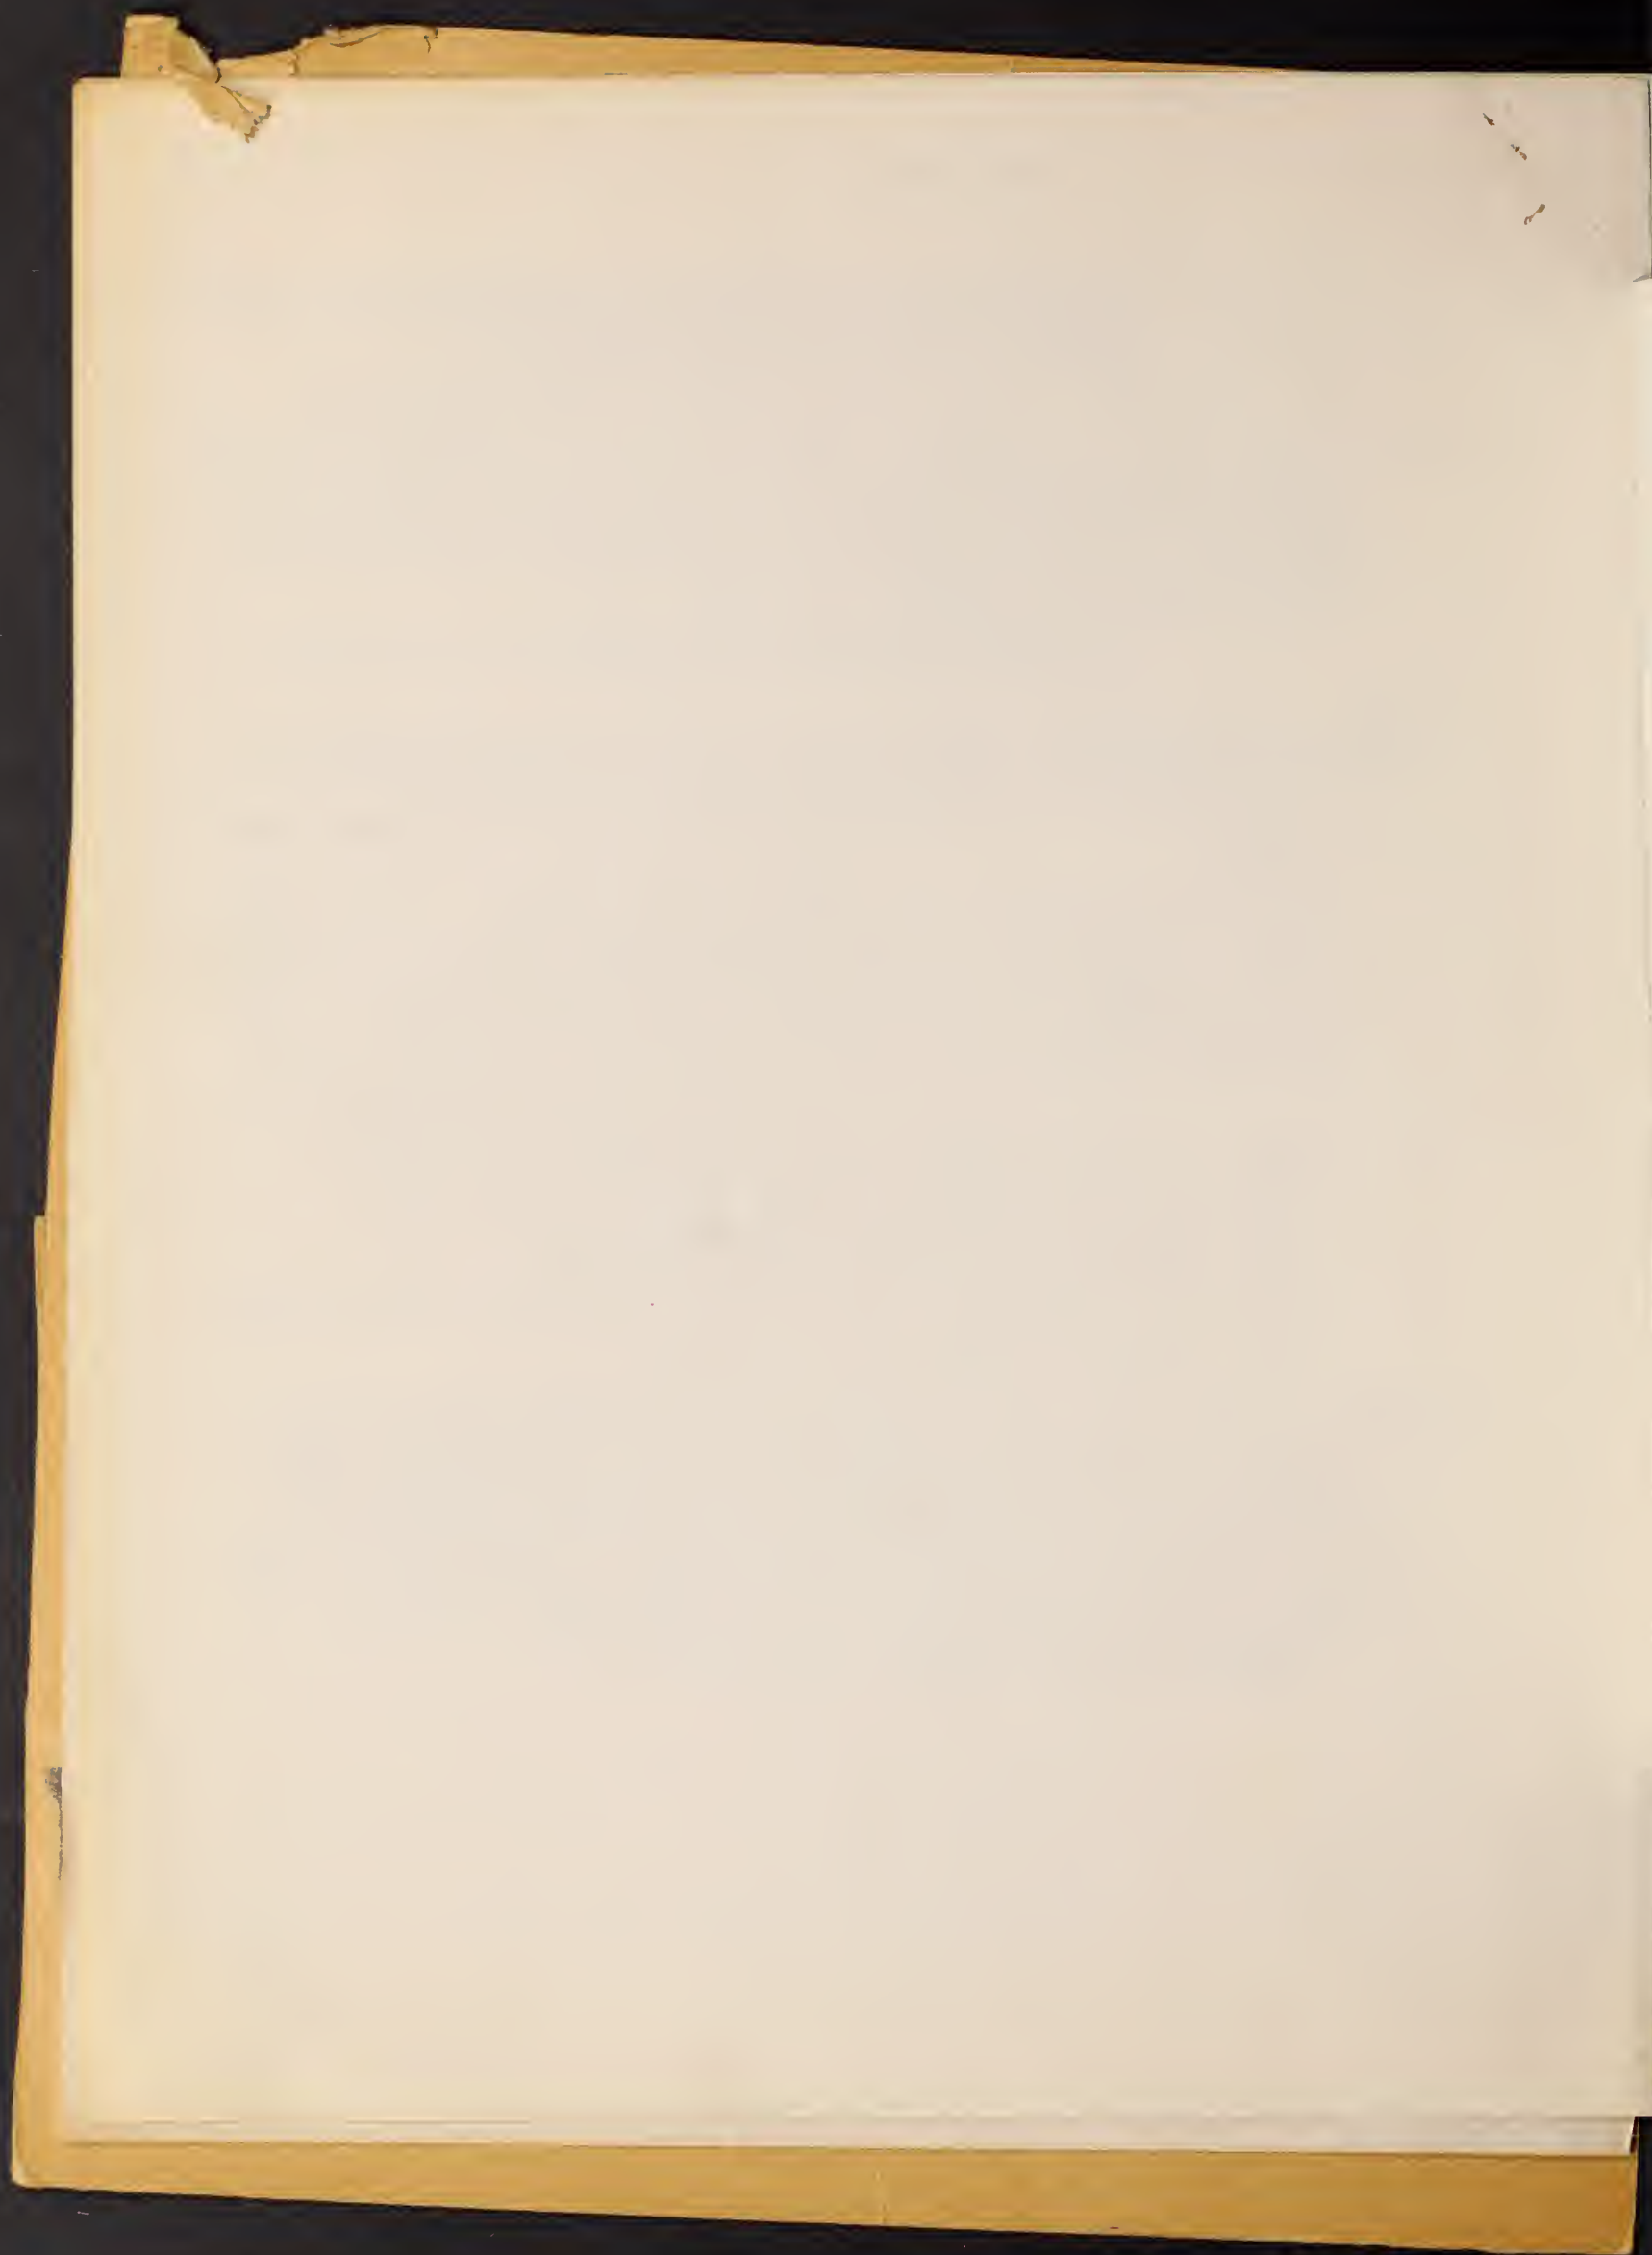

About the year 1674, he settled in New Hampshire. In 1675, the Indians broke up the settlement. From 1674 to 1682, they resided in Hadley, but settled ultimately in Northfield, Mass., where he died in 1698. She died prior to March, 1690.

Children of Thomas Webster and Abigail Alexander, all born in Hadley:

9. I. Abigail Webster, born Jan. 3, 1688, died in infancy.
10. II. Abigail Webster, born Jan. 10, 1689.
11. III. George Webster, born Nov. 7, 1679, of whom later.
12. IV. John Webster, born Feb. 26, 1681.
13. V. Elizabeth Webster, born Nov. 23, 1676.
14. VI. Thankful Webster, born Jan. 17, 1679, married John Hancock, in 1700.
15. VII. Mary Webster, born May 25, 1681.

11. George Webster, third child of Thomas Webster and Abigail Alexander, born Nov. 7, 1679, probably at Hadley; married Dec. 17, 1695, Sarah Bliss, daughter of Samuel Bliss, of Springfield, Mass. George Webster resided at Springfield. On April 11, 1704, at a town meeting, permission was granted him to use pine trees for tar-pentine, in the manufacture of resin for a period of four years. He removed to Lebanon, Conn., about 1705. He died about 1723 or 1724. His widow Sarah married Capt. Joseph Marsh, of Lebanon, Conn., on Dec. 14, 1725, as his second wife.

Dear Mr. Burleigh,

I am a member of the Sir John Johnson Branch of the U.E.L Society who has spent many years tracing the name MARSH. Having noted that your branch has members who are descended from one Matthias Marsh, I would very much like to determine how he connects to my records.

Where he was born, or lived, prior to settling in Adolphustown is very important to me, and a record of his family with dates. The first family is all that I want, to see if I can connect them to their ancestry in the U.S.A.

I have a record of his son, Abraham Marsh, petitioning for land at Adolphustown on Jan. 26, 1830. He was then over 21 yrs. old.

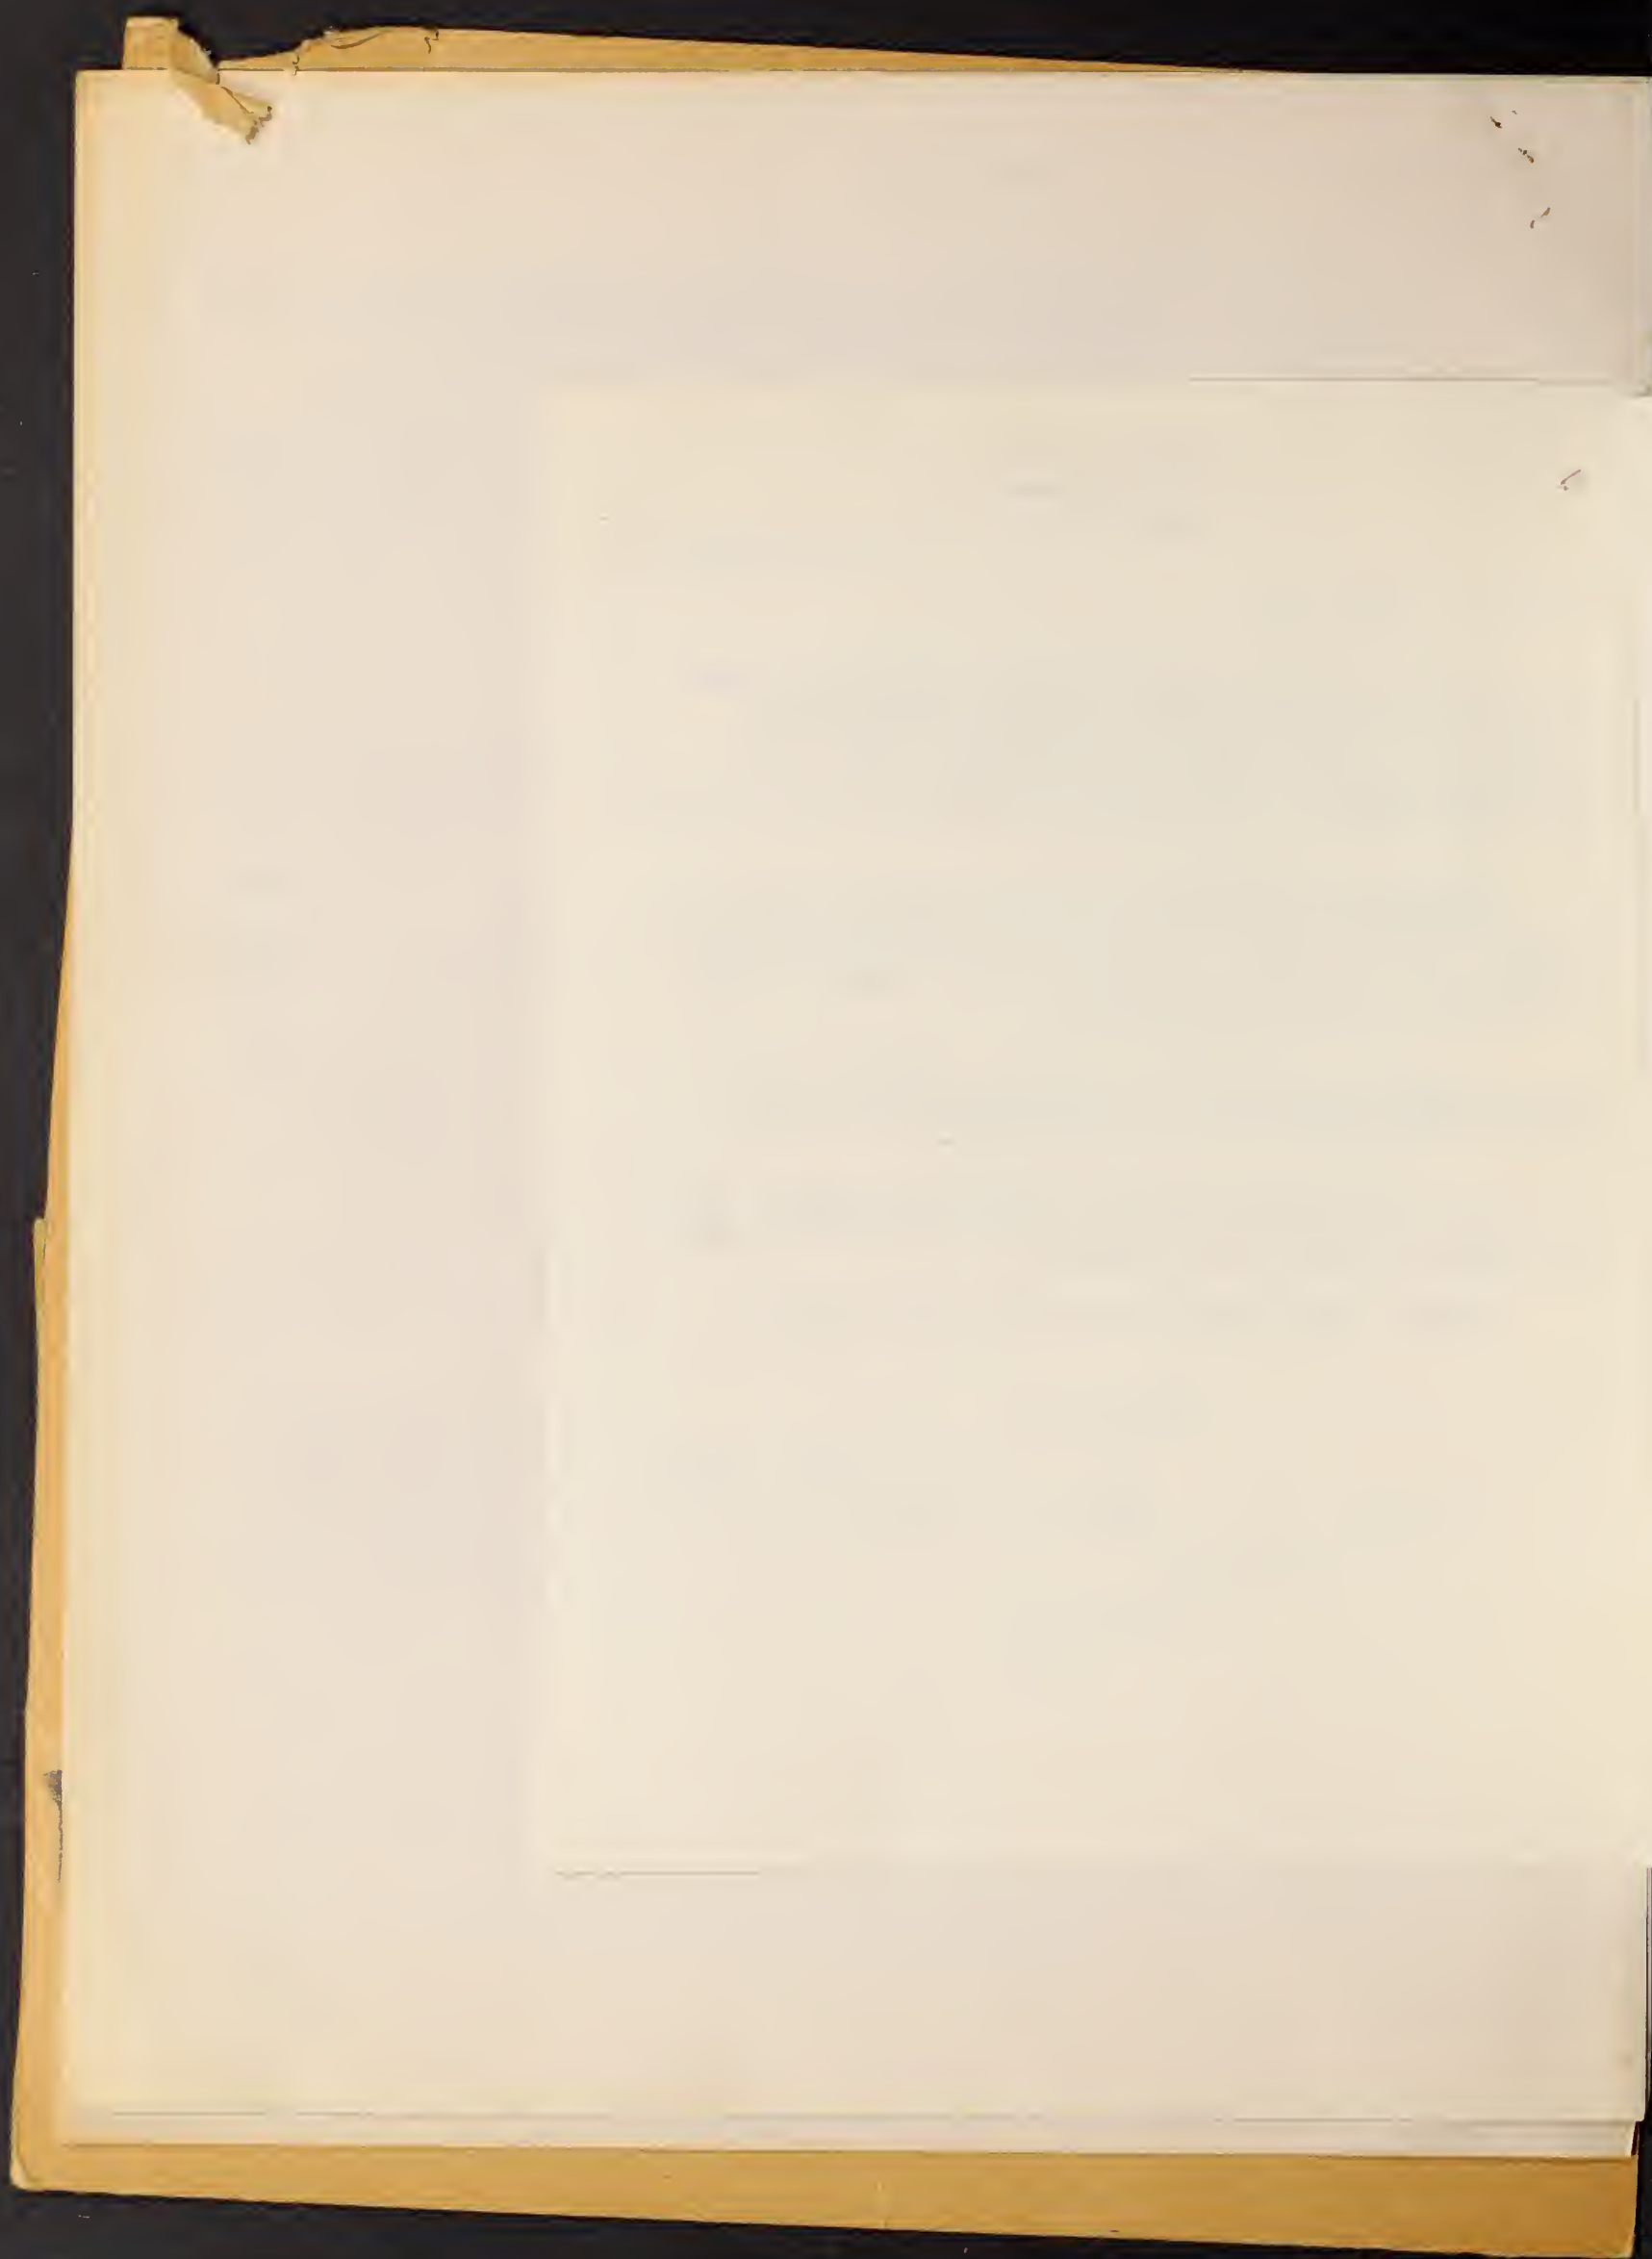

If I am able to place Matthias Marsh, I would be very pleased to send you the early ancestry of the family back to the 1600's.

Hoping that this is not too much trouble.

Sincerely,

Howine Marsh Dalton

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

Thank you very much for your letter of Nov. 26th. Matthias Marsh would certainly be a descendant of William Marsh of Plainfield, Conn.

This Marsh line has never been published, but I have collected many of them, and so has one Mr. Warren Marsh of Old Saybrook, Conn. We would both like to see the descendants of Matthias of the 2nd generation completed.

I am therefor sending you a copy of them as they stand at present. Perhaps you would know of a Loyalist descendant of Matthias who would like to complete the family, and would be interested in their beginning.

If so, I would really appreciate your giving the copy to them.

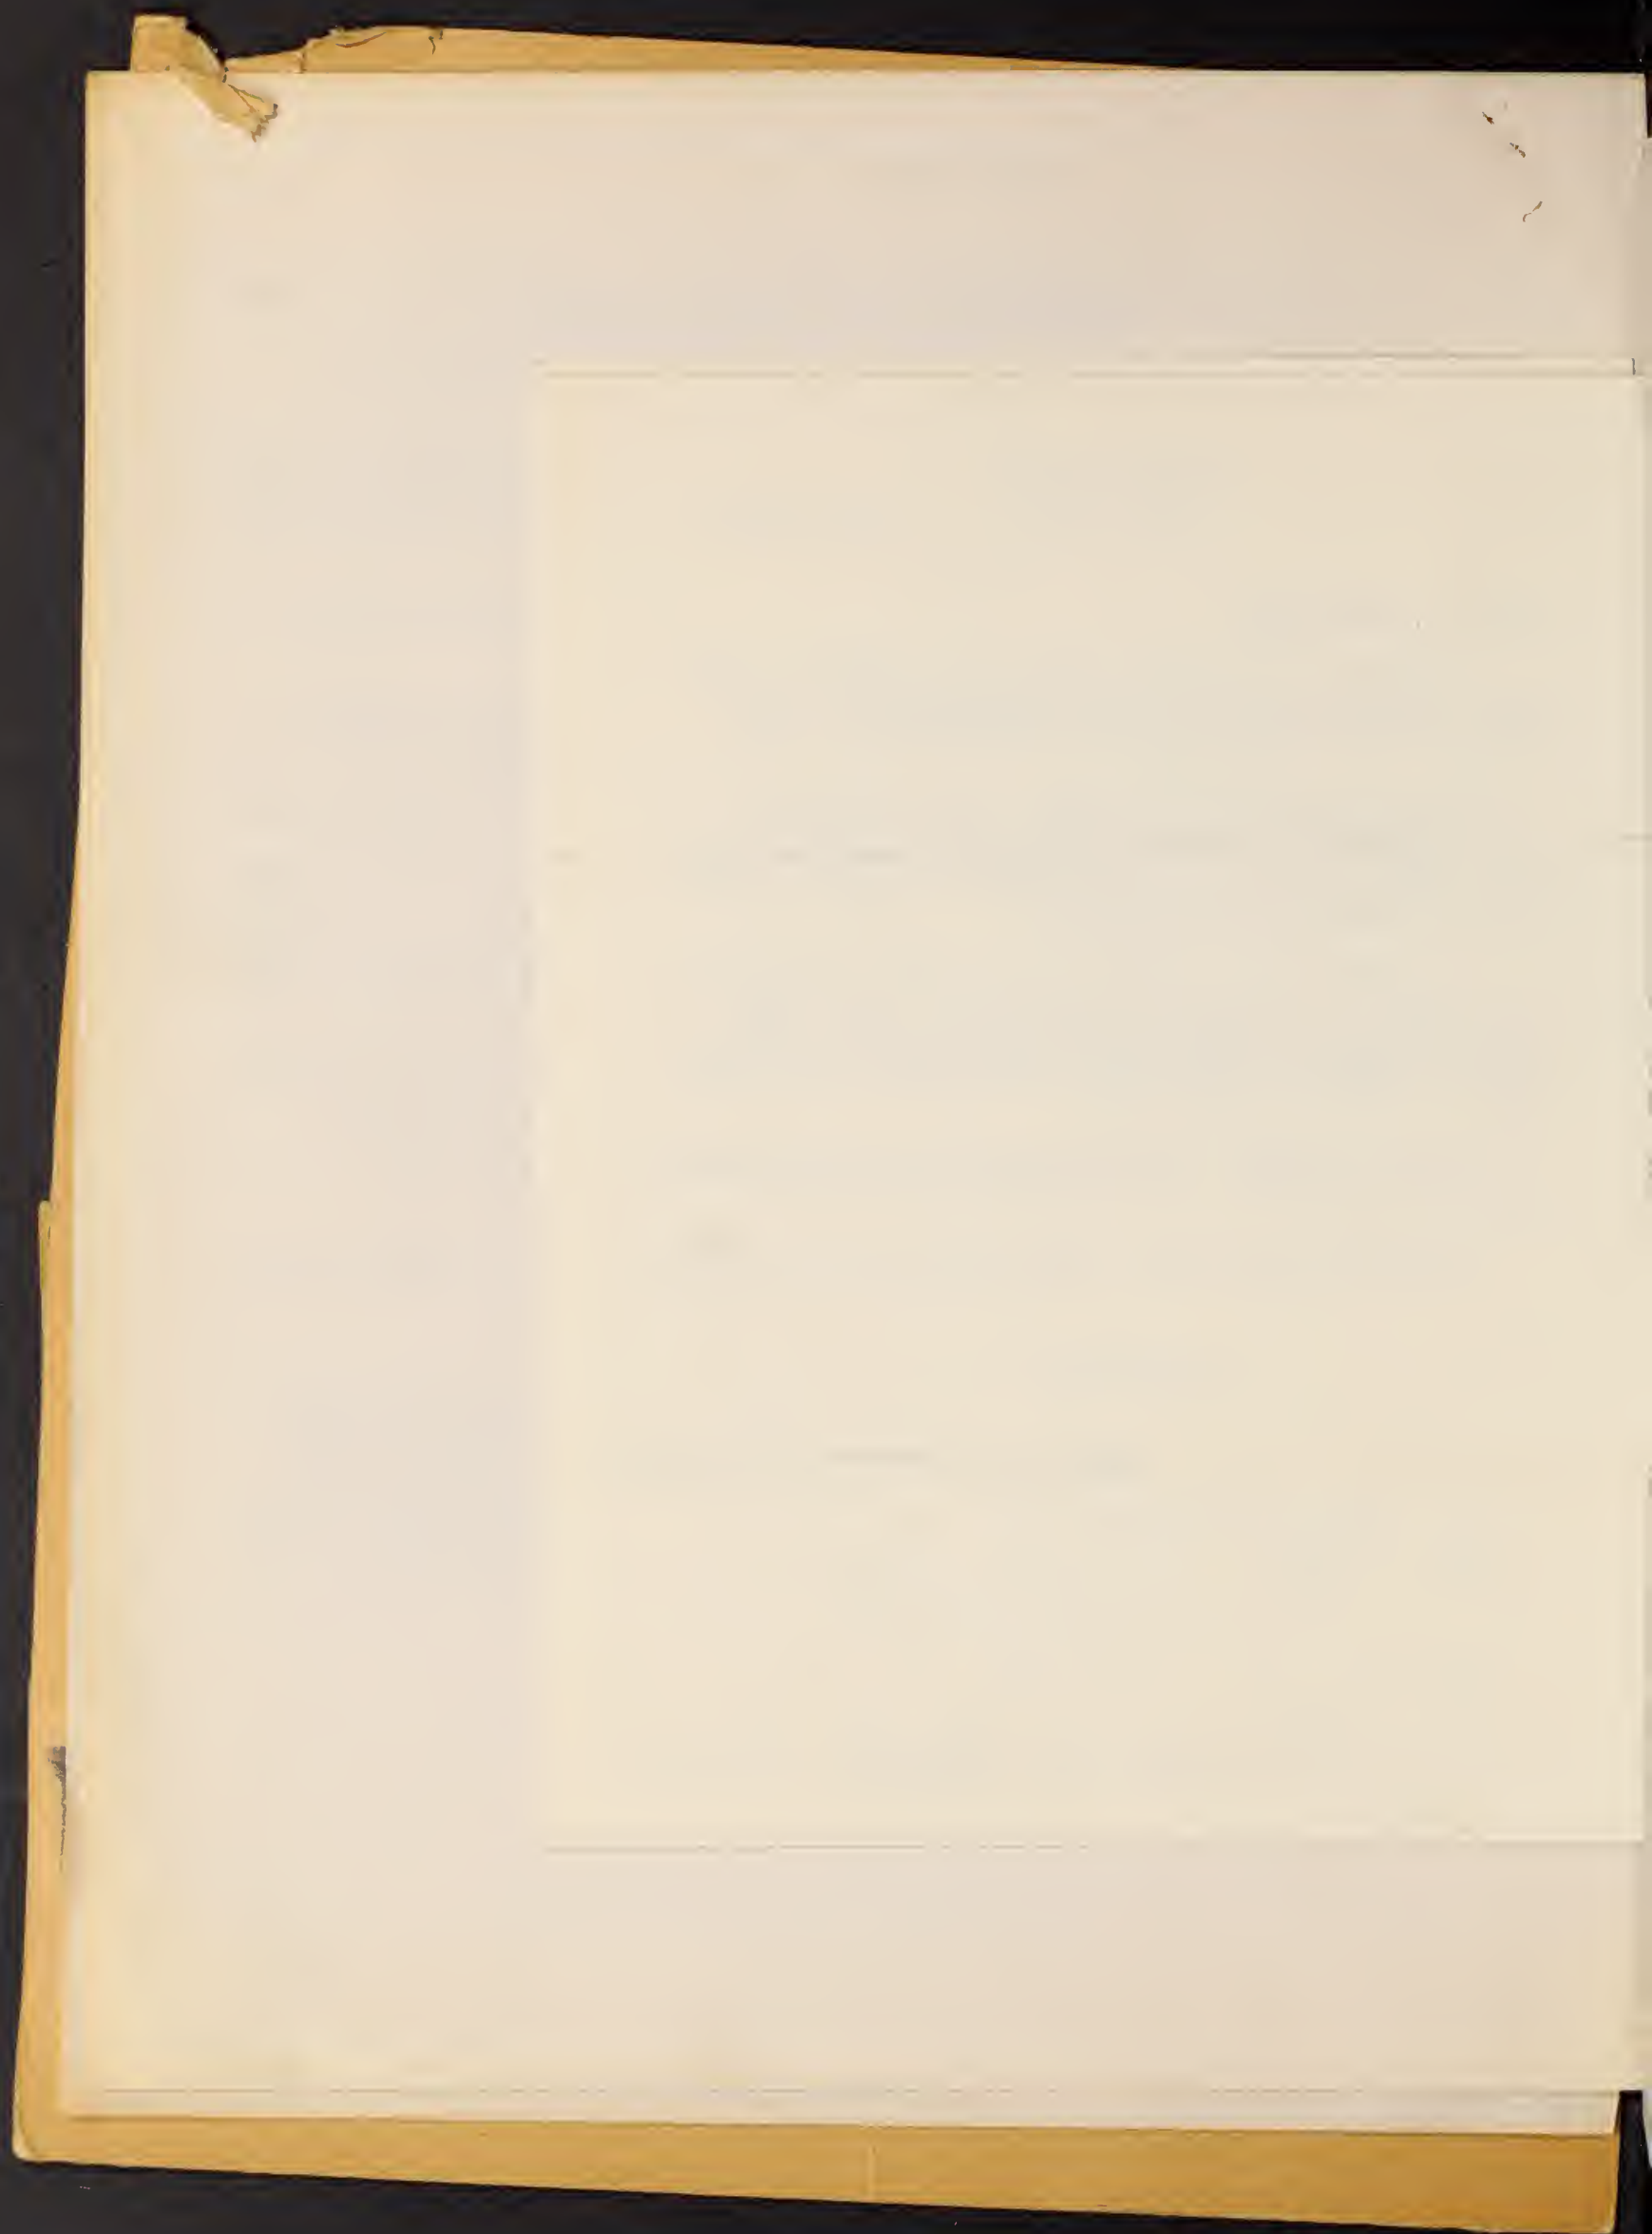

Thank you again for your trouble on my behalf.

Sincerely,

Howie Marsh Dalton

Dear Mrs. Morrison

I am enclosing the promised copy of my notes from the "Ancestors and Descendants of Samuel French, the Joiner".
I do feel that they should be in the hands of his descendants.

In the course of a survey in which we too often find the homes of Ontario pioneer families in a desolate state, your lovely home was a wonderful respite.

I wish that I might have stayed to enjoy the cup of tea.

Yours sincerely,

Marion MacRae

RE: FRENCH FAMILY

Ancestors & Descendants of Samuel FRENCH,
the Joiner--printed by Edwards Bros., Ann Arbor, Mich., 1940. Edited by Mansfield
Joseph FRENCH, Syracuse, N.Y.

Samuel French, the Joiner, born 1687, came to America in 1714 with his two sons, Samuel and Jeremiah (age 4). Samuel came from Saxmondham in Suffolk, where there was a Jeremiah French who was grandfather of the Joiner. The Rev. Jeremiah French was buried at Bradford Abbas, Dorset. He had a son Samuel born in 1665 and his eldest son was Jeremiah.

Samuel French may have come over in a ship which was owned by a cousin, Philip French. (Philip French settled in New York City.) Samuel French settled in Stratford, Conn. in 1721. At that time it is noted that he had five children--Jeremy, Mary, Susannah, John, Jonathan. Samuel bought land in 1724 in Stratford. He was the father of six sons and five daughters and took land for all of his children. He was a forceful and able person, a master carpenter. He built a church in Stratford in 1724 which doubtless still stands. Joseph, the youngest son, inherited the homestead in Stratford. The only record of Samuel's wife Mary is her Will which left land to her son Jeremiah of Beekman, Dutchess County, N.Y. This Jeremiah is the father of Jeremiah of Manchester.

Jeremiah French born about 1712, son of Samuel and Mary French baptised in Stratford, died about 1793 in South Dover, Dutchess county, N.Y. Married in Stratford 1737 in Connecticut, Hannah Richards who died in 1776. Married secondly Martha Beardslee of Stratford (1728-1816). Jeremiah stayed in Stratford until 1738.

Jeremiah French Sr., lost 400 acres by confiscation, as a Loyalist but remained in South Dover. His homestead may have been the Drover's Tavern. He acquired the land on which Manchester stands, deeded then to our Jeremiah and his sister Sarah who married William Marsh. All this was lost when Jeremiah Jr., and William Marsh joined the Loyalists.

The Children of Jeremiah Sr. and Hannah Edwards French:

21. William (1737)
22. Mary (1738)
23. Sarah (1741)
24. Jeremiah (July 7, 1743)
25. Benjamin (1745)
26. Cherity (1747)
27. Gloriana
28. Gershom
29. Theodosia

21. William

Married Ann Bennett 1757 in Stratford, Conn. Died 1812 in Southbury, Conn. He was a Lieut. in Capt. John Hinam's Company, the 13th Militia Regiment of Connecticut. He arrived in camp in 1776. (Oldest boy presumably got the homestead in Connecticut.A.A.) William's daughter Sylvania married General Emphrain Hinman.

22. Mary

Born and died in Connecticut

23. Sarah

Married William Marsh of Dutchess County, N.Y. She died in 1820 in East Dorset, Vt. William Marsh joined the British forces in 1777. He was taken prisoner at Bennington, Vt., paid a fine and was allowed to return to his family. The lands at Manchester were confiscated but his wife retained her lands in East Dorset. Their second child Hannah (1760-1823) married Asa Weller of Manchester, Vt., later of Weller's Bay, P.E. County, Ontario. Their children were Catharine, Eliakin, William, Johnson, Sarah (married R.A. Miskin), Fannie Anne, Hannah, Anne, Robert, Benjamin, Asa.

Sarah French Marsh's third child Jeremiah Marsh born 1767 died in 1816 in Murray Township, Ontario.

Their fourth child Benjamin Marsh died in Port Hope, Ontario

The fifth Samuel (1775) died in 1820 in Trent County, Ontario

24.

Jeremiah (see later)

25. Benjamin

Died in 1772. Property confiscated as a Loyalist. His widow received money from New York State as a dower right. It may be that he was killed in the Revolution.

26. Charity

(1747-1813) Died in St John's County, N.B. He was a Loyalist. Made a prisoner in 1776, escaped in 1771 to New York City. Served in the Commissary. In 1782 he returned to his family in Dutchess County, was arrested and escaped to New Brunswick. His family remained behind in New York State.

27. Glorianna (or Gloryeaner)

Died at Elizabethtown, Leeds County, Ontario. She married the Rev. John Bryan, Chaplain to Jussup's Corps. Lived in St Joli, P.Q., Verdun 1787. Was granted 700 acres in Elizabethtown, then went back to Sodus, N.Y. Some of the Bryan family remained in Ontario, some returned to New York.

28. Gershom

Born Southbury 1723, died 1831 at Coteau du Lac, Quebec. Married Margaret Faulkner, widow of Jacob Hare. Variouslly lived in States. In 1776 Lieut. in British army; 1777 Lieut.-Adj. in Queen Royal Rangers of Col. Peters Regiment. In 1783 reported to the Canadian government re river settlement of the Ottawa. Children: Margaret, William, Gershom, Elsie, Ann.

The only descendant bearing the name French is John French who moved to Montreal in 1932

The Gershom French house in Coteau du Lac was sold by John.

24. Jeremiah

Jeremiah French, son of Jeremiah and Hannah Edwards French was born July 8, 1743 at Stratford, Conn. Baptised in 1743 in Stratford. Died at Maple Grove, Stormont County, Ontario on December 5, 1820

He married in 1762 Elizabeth Wheeler who was born in 1745 in Dutchess County, N.Y., and died in 1838 in Maple Grove. Jeremiah spent his boyhood in Dover, Dutchess County, N.Y. In 1764 he moved to Manchester, Vermont, where his father owned lands. He was Town Clerk of Manchester, Vt., from 1768 to 1773, Select-man in 1773, and Constable in 1774. On July 15th 1777 he enlisted as Captain of the 4th Company of the Queens Loyal Rangers and served until 1783. On Nov. 18, 1781 Fred Haldimand appointed him 2nd Lieut, in the Kings Royal Regiment of New York. In 1784 he was granted 600 acres at Maple Grove and settled there in 1786. Retained some connection with Dover, N.Y., until 1791 as a ledger in Dover records sales to Jeremiah French Jr., in 1790. He was Magistrate of Eastern District of Upper Canada in 1792. He received a total of 2400 acres of land. It is recorded that he sold timber for the purpose of erecting a jail in Cornwall. He operated a mill and dock and built a large brick house opposite his earlier home which is now owned by the Robertson family.

The M A R S H Family
(By Mrs Florence Marsh WILLIAMS, RR 2 Brighton, Ont.)

Captain James MARSH of the village of Marchfield, Kent county, in England (now absorbed by the City of London) was killed at the Battle of Edgehill 1642 fighting in Cromwell's Army. Estates were later confiscated by Charles II. Three sons escaped to America

William MARSH, one of the three brothers who came to America, was 18 years of age at the time he landed in Connecticut. He was wounded at the Battle of Narragansett 1676. He married the lady who nursed him and they had a large family

Mathias MARSH, youngest son of William, moved finally to Dorset, Vermont. He married a Miss Brigham and they had only one child. Mathias remained neutral during the Revolutionary War (1776-1783) thereby avoided having his property confiscated

Colonel William MARSH, United Empire Loyalist, lived in East Dorset, Vermont and was a large land-owner. He owned the farm on which Manchester, Vt., stood, as well as a large hotel. He served under General Burgoyne and after his defeat was allowed to go to Canada where he served under General Haldimand. After Peace was declared he was allowed to return to Vermont to his wife and family. Colonel William and his wife, the former Miss French, with their six children, Mathias, William Jr., Samuel, Johnson, Benjamin and Hannah, had settled in Vermont before the War. His first land was obtained in 1769; therefore his children were born before that date. All his property in Vermont was confiscated because he was a U.E. Loyalist. After the Peace he drew several thousand acres of land in Upper Canada to re-imburse him for his losses during the War and also for services rendered. He drew land in Sidney twp (near Trenton), near Consecon, near Port Hope and near Georgian Bay. Land grants for his sons were: Mathias 1000 acres near Trenton and 1000 acres near Consecon; Samuel and William Jr., 1000 acres each near Port Hope; Johnson 1000 acres near Georgian Bay; his daughter Hannah who had married Acey WELLER first settler at Weller's Bay near the Carrying Place, also received a land grant as daughter of a U.E. Loyalist. Catherine Weller, daughter of Hannah and Acey, married Lieut-Col. James YOUNG fourth son of Captain Robert Young who settled at Carrying Place in 1795. After seeing his sons and daughter well settled, Colonel Marsh returned to Vermont where shortly afterward he died.

I. Mathias MARSH born about 1755 married twice: 1) Miss RICHARDSON
2) Mrs Cobb (nee Dixon)

He is reputed to have had twenty-four children but the names of only fifteen appear available in the records:

ARCHIBALD; JAMES; ABRAHAM; EDMUND; HENRY; SAMUEL; WILLIAM;

NOTE: The William MARSH colonial-type home stands (in 1939) on Kingston Road two miles west of Welcome.

A grandson, Thomas MARSH, born about 1864, remembers when the schooner Caroline Marsh which was built in 1852 at Port Britain at the mouth of Marsh's Creek, was wrecked about 1890.

The boat was named after a daughter, Caroline Marsh.

William MARSH built his mansion more than a century ago (1939) or more, from bricks made on his own farm, by bricklayers he brought out from England. It was his family residence and one of the most important inns of Upper Canada. Here the post horses were changed daily on the stage coach run from York to Kingston. At the east end was a large wing, corresponding to that of the west end, which was the hostelry part of the mansion, with bar, driving shed, stables and ballroom above. The old mansion is still occupied and in good repair (1939).

THE MARSH FAMILY.

The father of William Marsh, the emigrant, was Captain James Marsh, who was killed at the Battle of Edgehill in 1642, while serving with the forces of King Charles. One writer states that James was executed on the order of King Charles right after the Battle of Edgehill for being in sympathy with Cromwell while serving with the King's forces. That an aunt of William Marsh, fearing for his safety, after the restoration of Charles II., had him and two of his cousins emigrate to America, where they would be beyond the immediate wrath of Charles II.

If it is correct that William Marsh was eighteen years of age when he came to America, and that he came at the Restoration in 1660, then he was born in 1642, the year his father was killed, being 82 years old when he died, as his death occurred in 1724.

1. WILLIAM MARSH (1). It is stated that he landed at Salem, Mass. From there he went to Boston, where he was made a commissary in the Indian War of 1676. He was wounded during King Philip's War in the Narragansett fight in 1676, and was removed to Stonington, where he was treated by Dr. Noice, and nursed back to health by Elizabeth Yeomans, whom he afterwards married, Oct. 18, 1681. He resided in Stonington, Conn., until about 1693 or 4, when he moved to Plainfield, Conn., where he lived until he died in 1724.

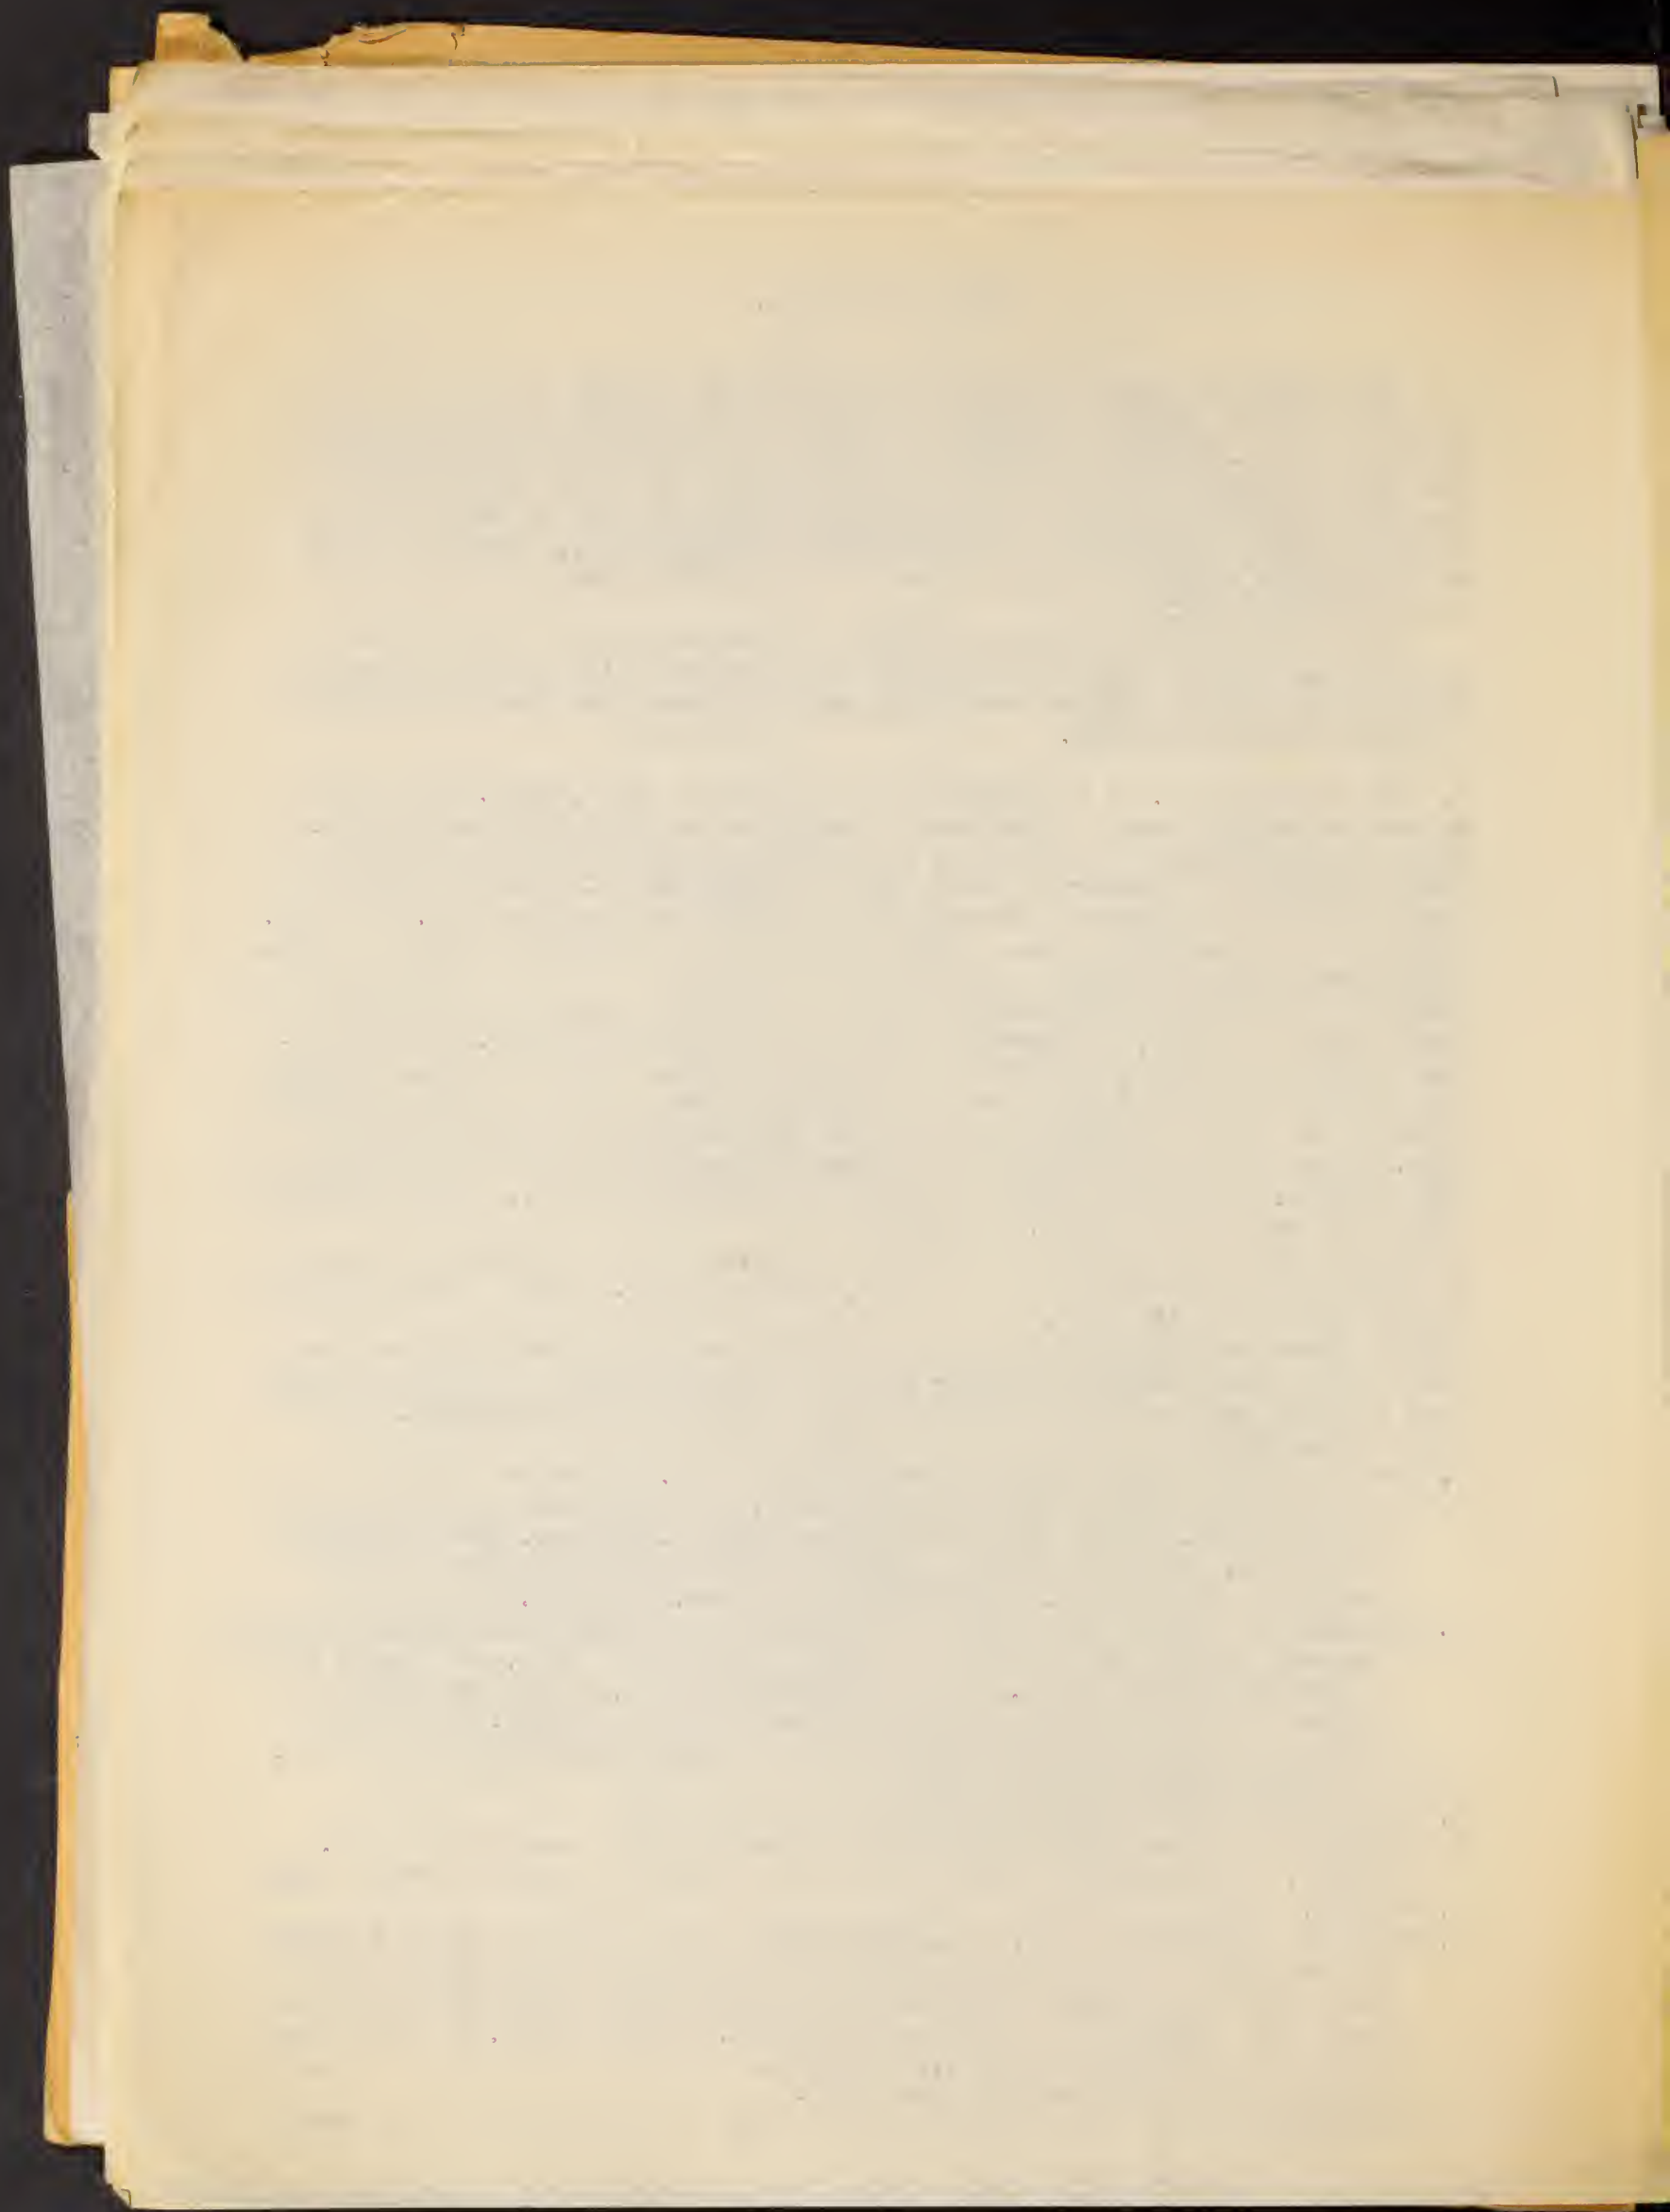

Elizabeth Yeomans, whom he married, was born in 1659, daughter of Edward and Mary (Button) Yeomans, of Haverhill, Mass., and Stonington, Conn. Edward Yeomans (1730-16620 came about 1650 to Charleston, Mass. He married, Dec. 6, 1652, Mary Button, born in 1633, daughter of Matthias Button, born in Harold, England in 1607, and came to America with Governor John Endicott, landing at Salem, Mass., Sept. 6, 1628. Matthias Button married Elizabeth Wheeler, daughter of John Wheeler. He lived at Boston, Ipswich and Haverhill, Mass., and at Stonington, Conn., where he died Aug. 13, 1672.

History of the "First Church," Stonington, Conn., records 'Elizabeth Marsh, wife of William Marsh, admitted to the Church, Aug. 24, 1690. William Marsh admitted to the Church, May 14, 1693.

William Marsh removed with his wife and family, no doubt, about 1694, as the last Church record regarding him or his family is dated June 2, 1694, and there were two more children born, possibly three, after leaving Stonington.

His children were:

1. Mary (2), born about 1683; baptized Sept. 7, 1690. No further record.
2. William (2), born about 1685; baptized Sept. 7, 1690, seems to have remained in Plainfield. He was in the French War, 1756-7. The Rev. Cyrus Marsh, of Kent, Conn., in 1739, and of Plainfield, was probably his son, as also perhaps an Isaac Marsh. William Marsh died Jan. 23, 1759.
3. Thomas (2), deacon of the Church at Canada Parish, Windham, afterwards called Hampton, in 1730 and 1738. He preached at Mansfield, Conn., as pastor elect of the Separatist Church. He was imprisoned in Jan., 1746, for preaching without a licence, but was ordained there in the same year. He married Eliza -----, or Eunice Parkhurst, as some state, and died March 29, 1753. He was the father of twelve children.
4. James (2), married Hannah Shepard.
5. Elizabeth (2), born about 1692, baptized June 2, 1694. She married a Mr. Uttley. They settled in Canada Parish (now Hampden), Windham County, Conn.
6. Ann (2).
7. Matthias (2), born in 1695, or ~~earlier~~ later, at Plainfield, Conn. According to the History of the Brigham Family, 1907, Grafton Press, ~~by~~ Priscilla third child of Elnathan (3) (Thomas (2), Thomas (1) Brigham and of Bethiah Ward, born April 3, 1709, at Marlboro, Mass., married, Jan. 2, 1726 Matthias Marsh, of Coventry, Conn. There is no record of the death of Priscilla. Matthias Marsh died shortly after 1781. According to his will, dated April 11, 1781, he was survived by his ~~wife~~ two children, Elizabeth Ross, to whom he bequeathed ten shillings, as well as several sums already given to her, and his son, William. His reference to William is as follows:

"And the residue I gave and bequeathed unto Sarah, wife of William Marsh and their five sons, viz., Matthias Marsh, Jr., Jeremiah Marsh, Benjamin Marsh, Samuel William Marsh and William Samuel Marsh, all and singular, my land, messuage and tenements whether in Dorset or elsewhere, as will more fully appear by said will, reference thereunto being had, and also in the fifth Article, I did give and bequeath to my beloved grand daughters, the daughters of of William Marsh and Sarah, his wife, all my movable estate, that is to say, my cattle and horses of all kinds, and all stock, and household furniture, my wearing apparel, money and securities for money, and all other of my estate which is not disposed of by my last will and testament having date April 11, 1781. In last article I did constitute Sarah Marsh to be the sole executor of my said last will. Now mark well, and only be it remembered that I, Matthias Marsh, signer, hereby declare to the world, that whenever the present national dispute may subside or in anyways discontinue, whether by agreement of nation or nations, or in any ~~more~~ other wise whatsoever, my only and well beloved son, William Marsh, may return from his exile to this ~~same~~ State of Vermont, or any other State, so that he may enjoy said estate now intended to be by me granted unto him, I do hereby grant and decree and absolutely give to him and his assigns and heirs forever, all my estate as well real as personal, movables and immovables, and dues and demands of any kind or nature what ever, at any time after my decease, for the said William Marsh to enter the premises which are by these presents granted unto him--it being all that tract or parcel of land situate in South Easterly part of Dorset, commonly known as the Powell Farm, and its dependencies--and forever hold, use, occupy and enjoy forever, lawfully and legally, I declare said William Marsh to be my Executor.

William Marsh."

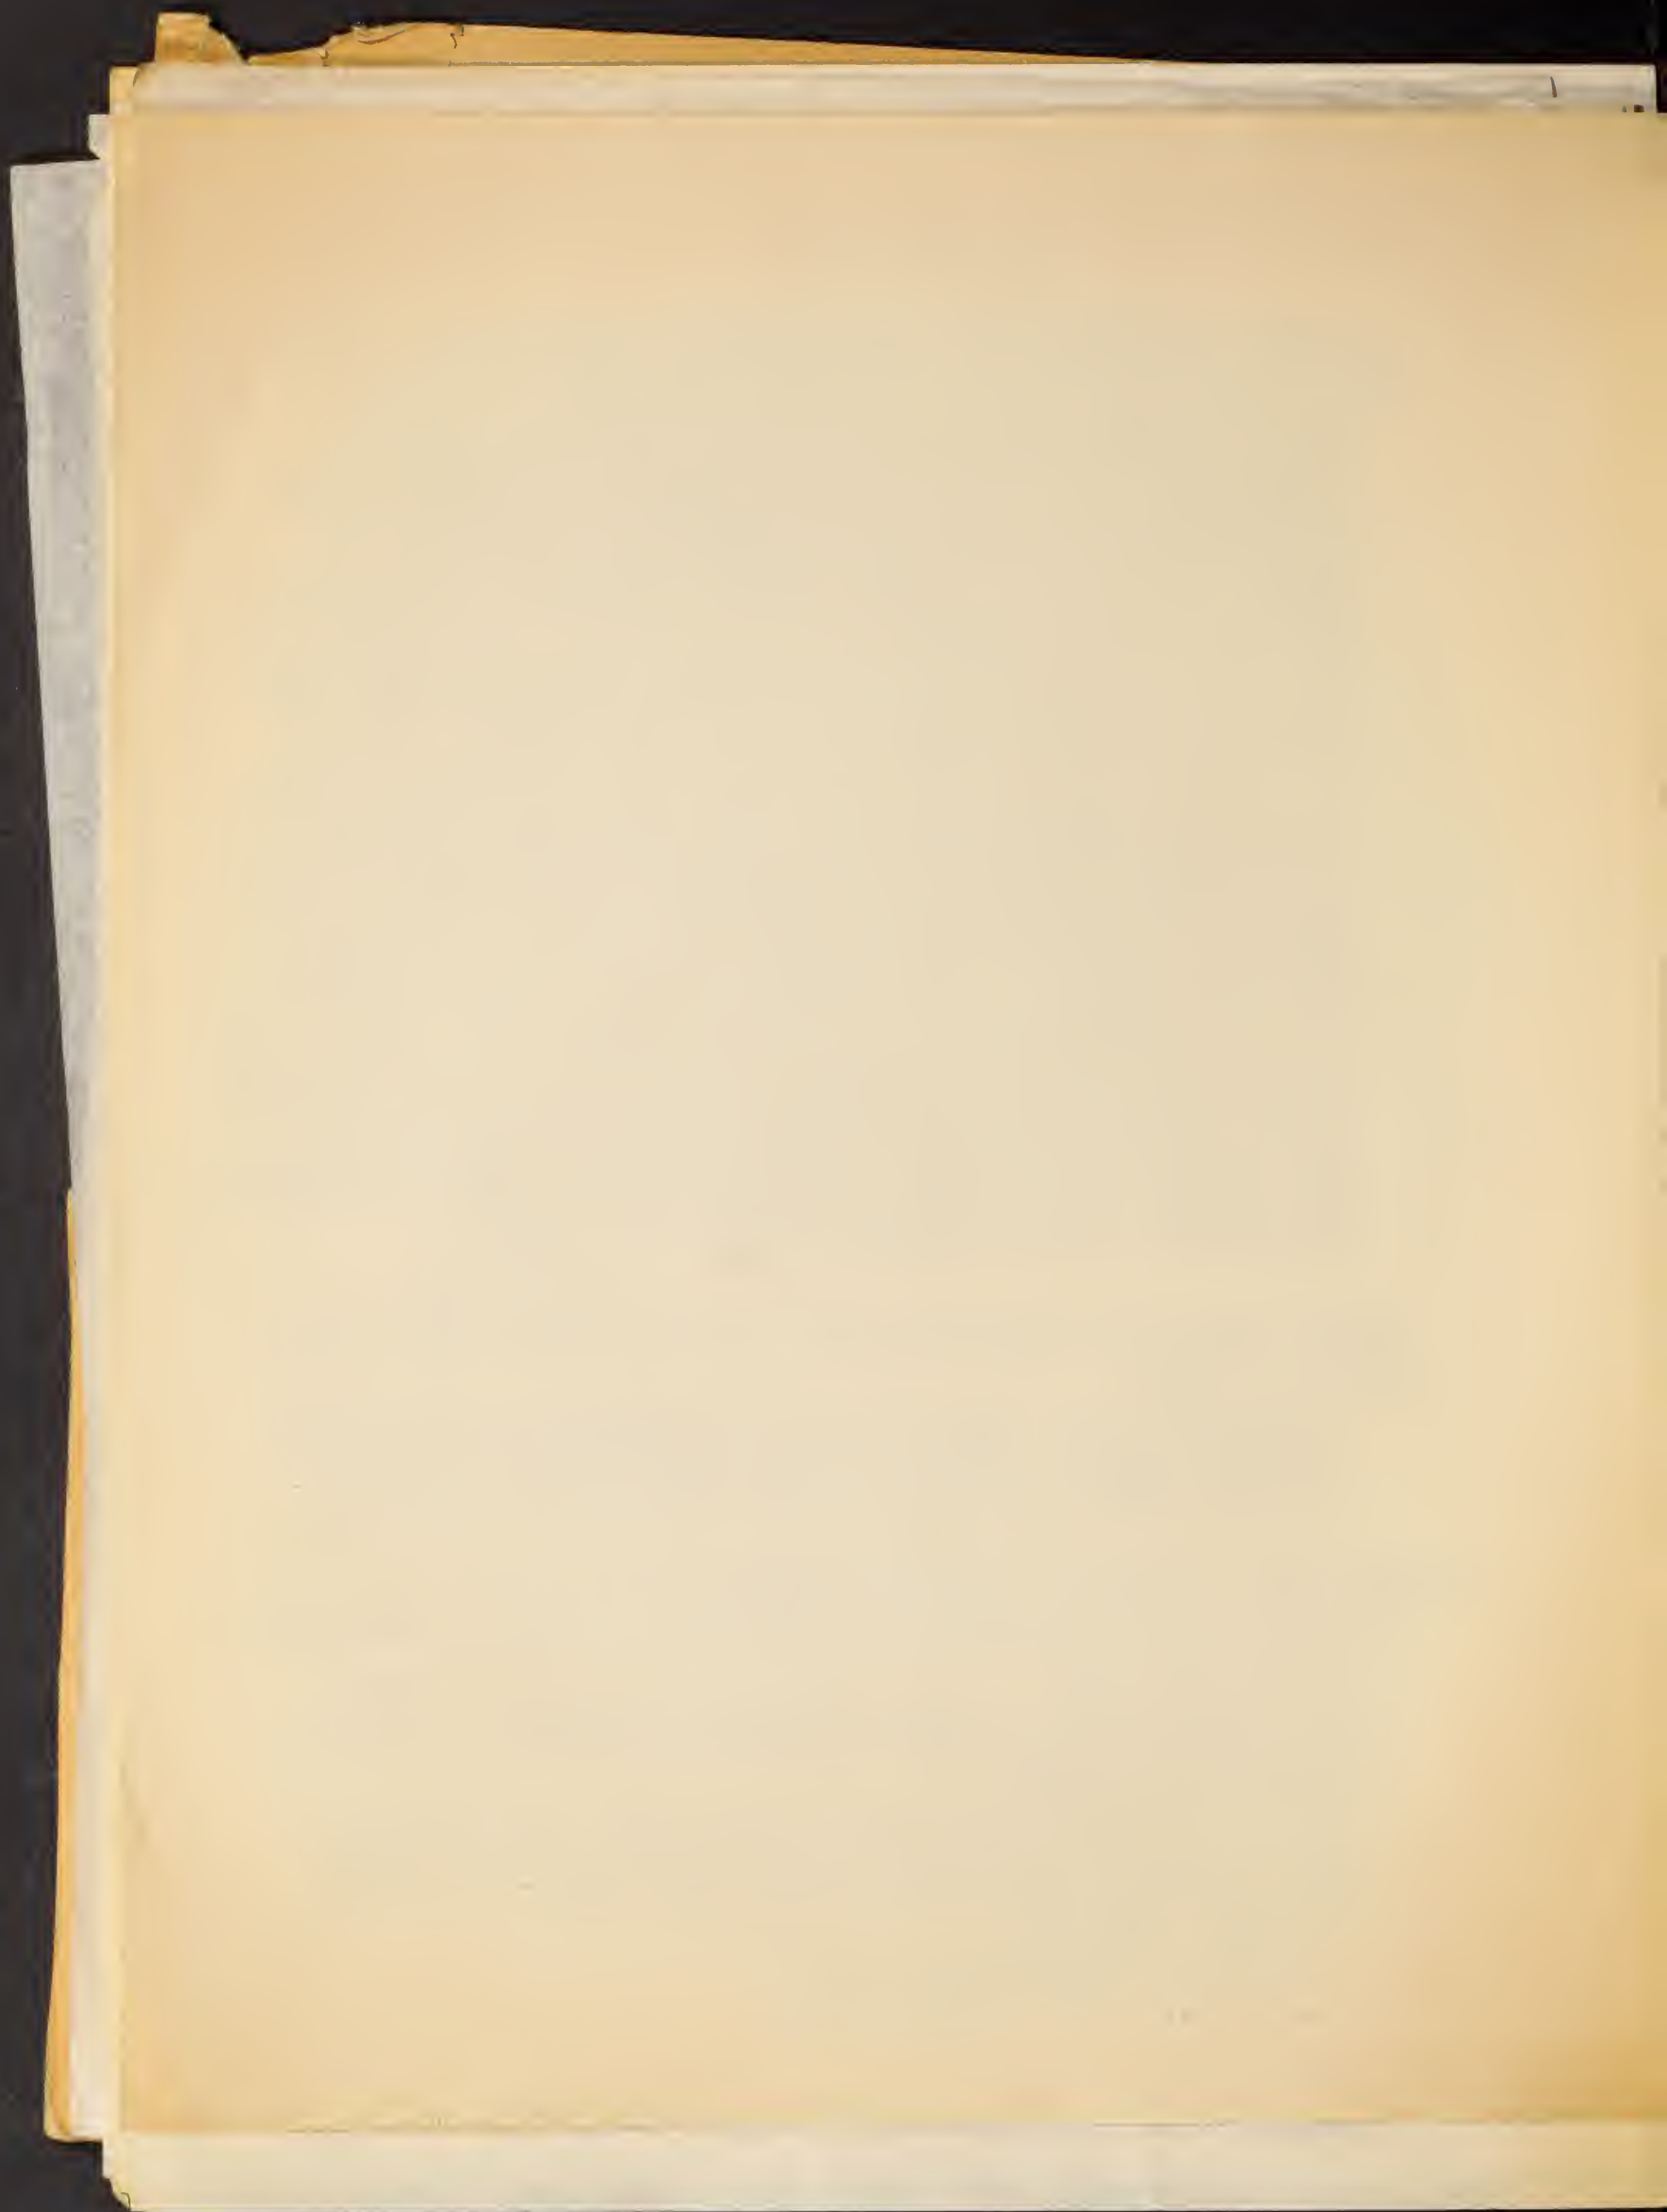

Matthias Marsh did not mention his wife in his will, which presumes that he was then a widower.

His children were:

1. Elizabeth Marsh 3, born Oct. 1, 1727; ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~
2. Matthias Marsh 3, born Dec. 28, 1729. (see below)
3. William Marsh 3, born Jan. 10, 1738; apparently died before 1781.
4. Bethiah Marsh 3, born Nov. 2, 1743; apparently died before 1781.

Elizabeth Marsh 3, (Matthias 2, William 1) married Zebulon Ross, Sr., who lived in Dutchess County, N. Y. Their children were:

1. Zebulon Ross, Jr. Was interned as a Tory during the American Revolution. No further record.
2. Matthias Ross, became a soldier in the British Army, and was killed.
3. Friend Ross; supposed to have gone to Vermont or Canada, and later to Wisconsin. He probably lived in Canada for a time.
4. Joseph Ross. No record.
5. John Ross. For full records, consult Mr. Wm. Miller Collier, Syracuse, N. Y., ex-ambassador to Chile for U. S. His wife is a descendant.
6. Artemus Ross. No definite record. Middle name is Marsh. (See below)
7. Sally Ross (Sarah), married Patrick Conroy, who settled in the Montreal district. Children:
 1. Eliza R., married Mr. Yeomans.
 2. Jane S., married Duncan Campbell.

3. Mary A.
4. Melvina.
5. Matthias Comroy.

Artemus Ross 4 (Elizabeth 3, Matthias 2, William 1) settled in Murray Township, where he drew 200 acres of land by Order-in-Council, dated 14 July, 1796. He is said to have married Penelope Dutcher, daughter of Solomon Dutcher, an American Revolutionary soldier; Artemas is said to have been born in Washington County, N. Y., in 1759, and died there in 1853. In his petition for land in Upper Canada, he mentioned six children. Of these,

1. Archibald Ross, married Miss Coleman. Their children were:
 1. Caroline, died in Toronto, unmarried.
 2. Laura, married John Booth, and died in Belleville.
- Children by second wife; Sarah Marshall:
3. Albert Ross, born 1849; married Alwilda Palmer; died in 1925. Issue

Claimt. says the price of Lands increased owing to Manchester now being a Shire town.

Produces Certificate from Thos. Chittenden, Govr., to the credibility of Gideon Brownson, Shadrack Danks, Abraham Underhill, Ira Allen, Thos. Butterfield, Danl. Johns & John Burns, Appraisers of difft parts of Claimt.'s Estate.

Claimt. has now no fixed residence in these Provinces. His wife is living on a farm left by Claimt.'s father to Claimt's five sons, to be divided after the Death of Claimt.'s wife in Dorset.

Claimt.'s father left his Estate thus in order to prevent its being forfeited by coming to him. Means to reside with his family in Vermont till he gets relief from Government. He has been in Vermont the last 16 months with leave from Govr. Haldimand. Produces letter from R. Mathews, 5 July, 1784, giving leave in the name of the Govr. for Claimt. to return to his family. Produces a Pass from Govr. Haldimand in May, 1783, giving Claimt. leave to go into ye Colonies on his private affairs.

Lost 29 Head of Cattle, 52 Sheep, 1 Yoke Oxen, 1 horse, 150 Bushels Corn. These articles were taken by a party of American~~X~~ Rangers who were preparing to attack the Hessian & Brit. at Bennington.

Produces two affidavits of the Claimt. having lost cattle by American Rangers.

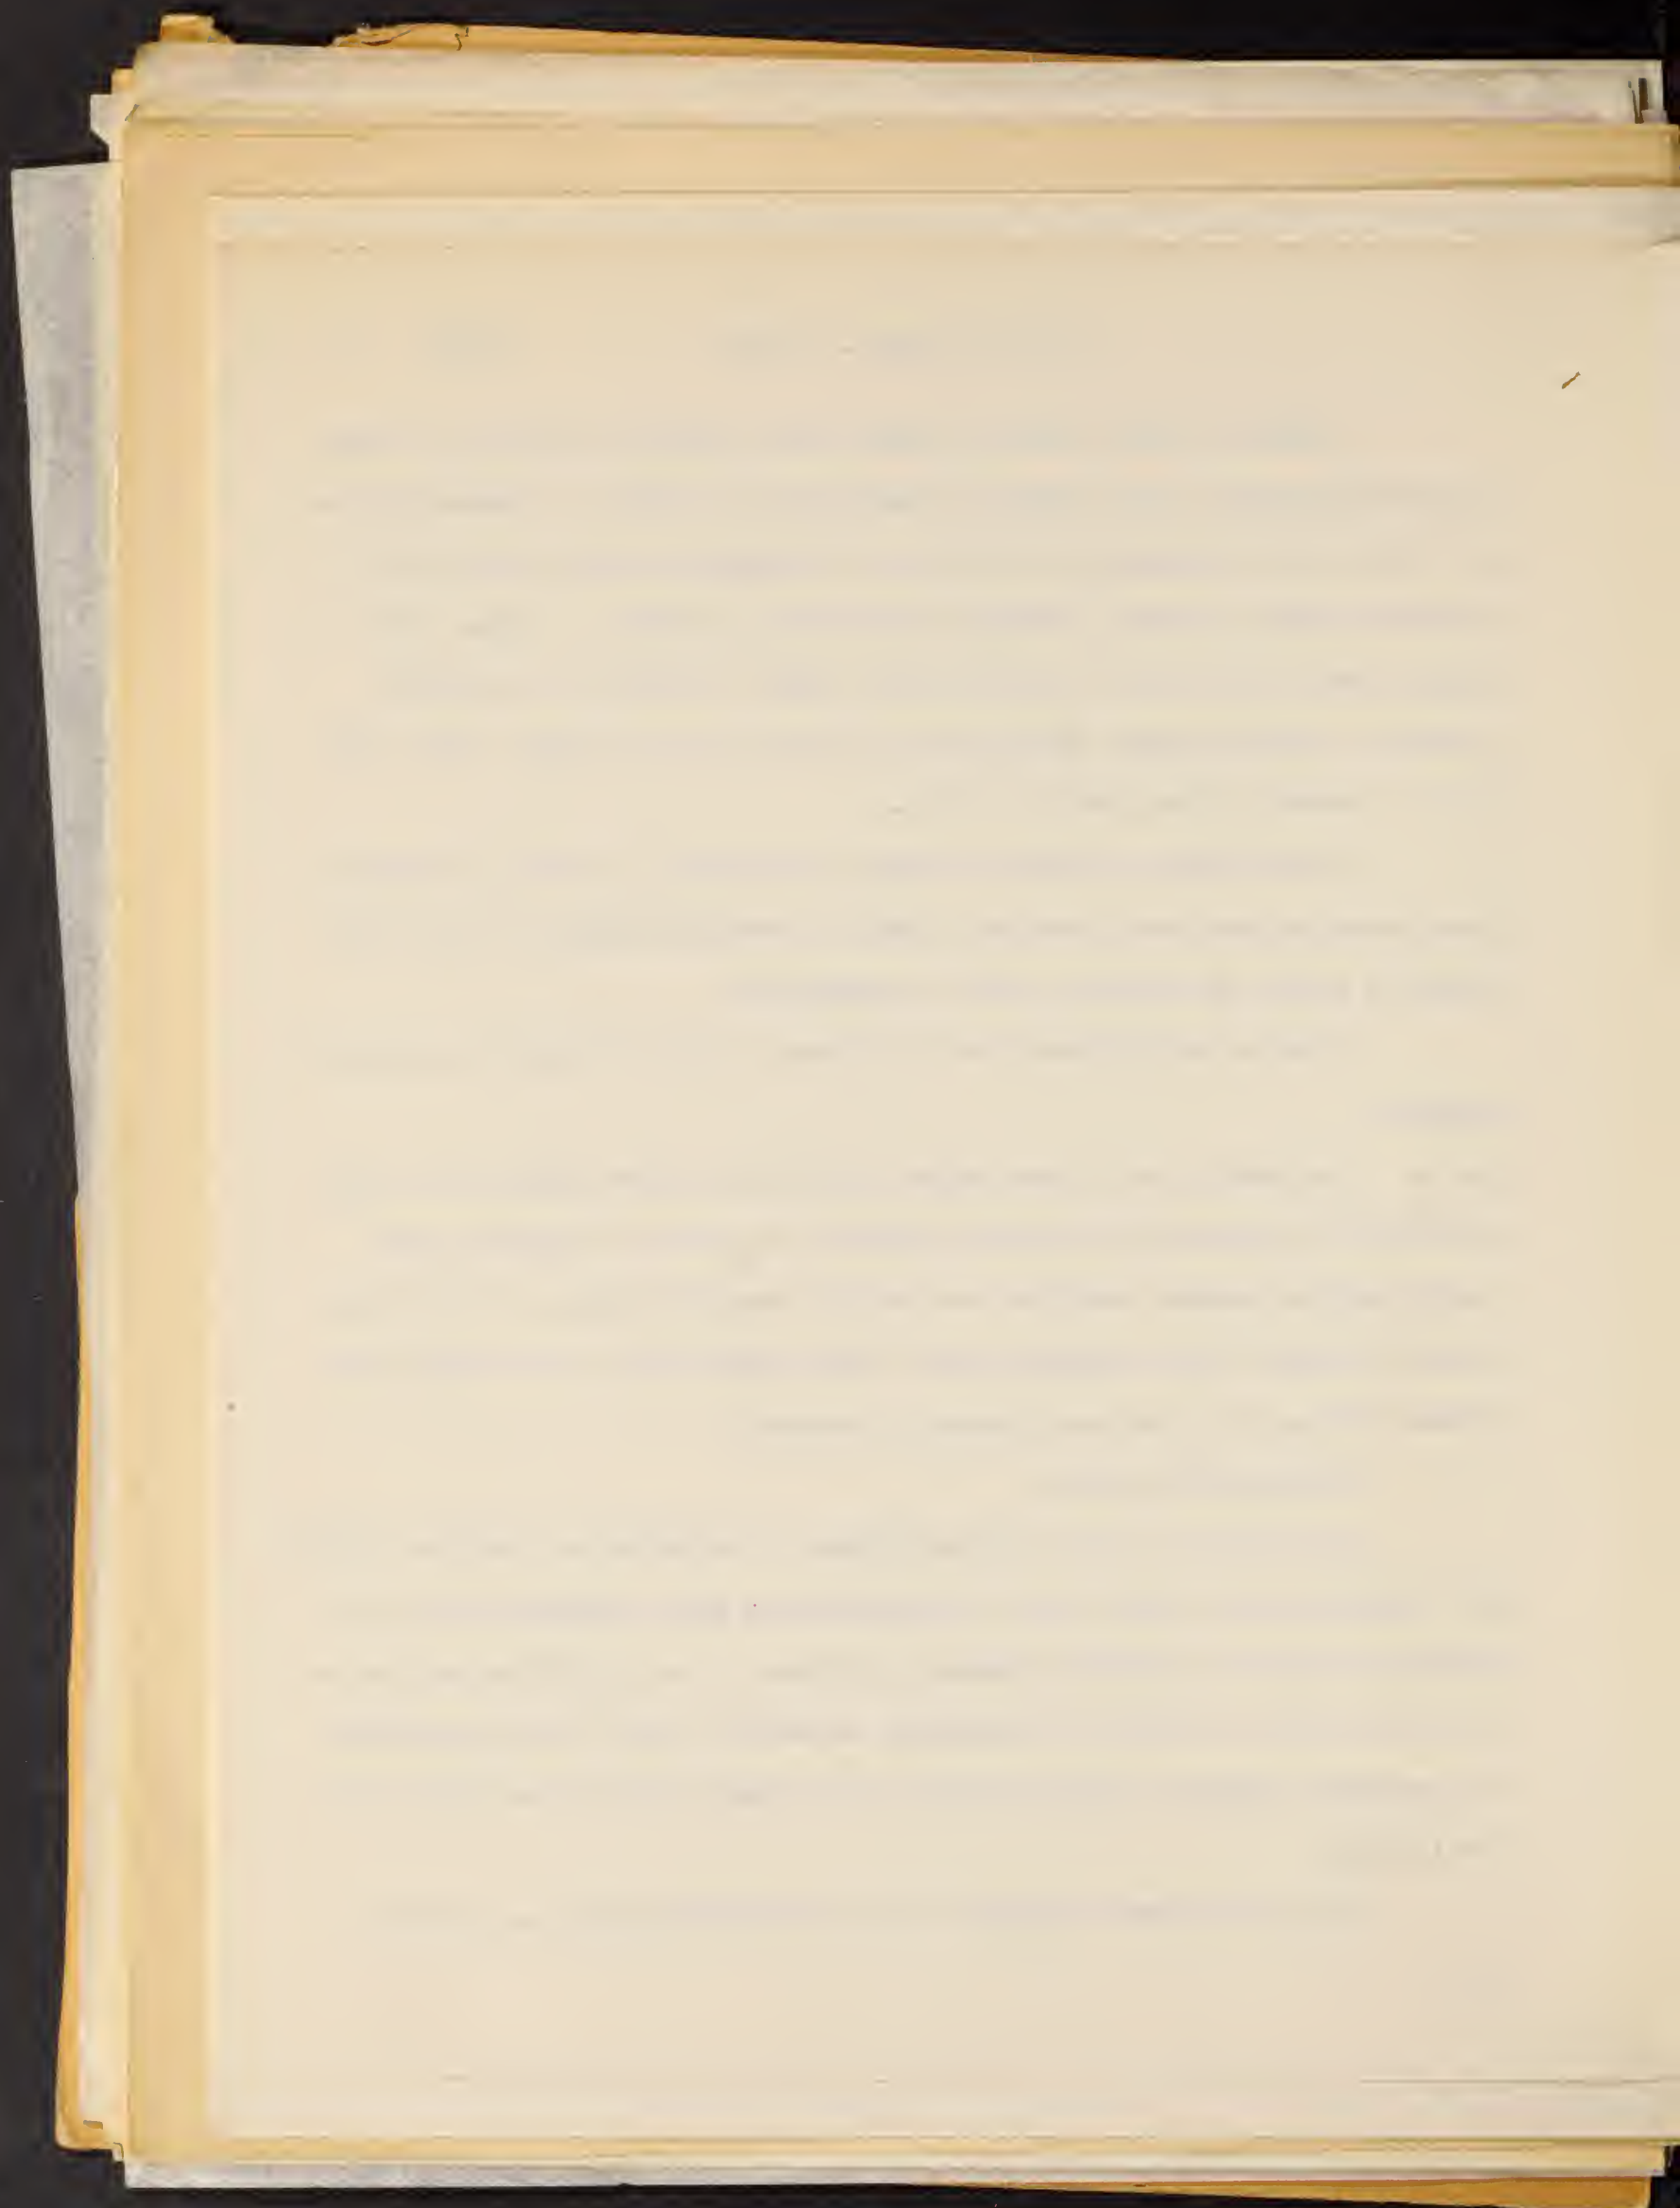

No. 6. The acct. given is very vague. Claimt. says these Cattle, &c., were taken about a month after he joined Burgoyne, by a party of Rangers called Starks Rangers. Claimt. says that the Rangers took everything, but that their friends recovered their property again if they could find it, but many, both friends & foes, never got their property restored.

Benjamin Holt, Wits.:

Knew Claimt. in the State of Vermont at beginning of troubles. Claimt. was a Committee man. While he was a Committee man, Wits. requested him to be moderate towards the Loyalists, which he promised to be. When Wits. applied to him he said that he began to be suspected of being a Tory. He was also member of Provincial Congress. Notwithstanding this, Witness thought him Loyal in his inclination.

He joined General Burgoyne's Army at Skeensborough & was with him till till he was taken. He was employed by General Burgoyne at a Board of Regulation. Continued till the Army was taken, then got leave to go by way of Vermont to see his family and got to Canada about a month after Witness, who went as soon as he could.

Claimt. Continued in Canada during the War. He was employed a little spell in making out Provisions for the Loyalists. His family is now in the State of Vermont.

Knew his farm in Manchester. Cannot speak to the Quantity. It is in the centre of the town. Vals. it at 17 pr. acre.

Abijah Hawley, Wits.:

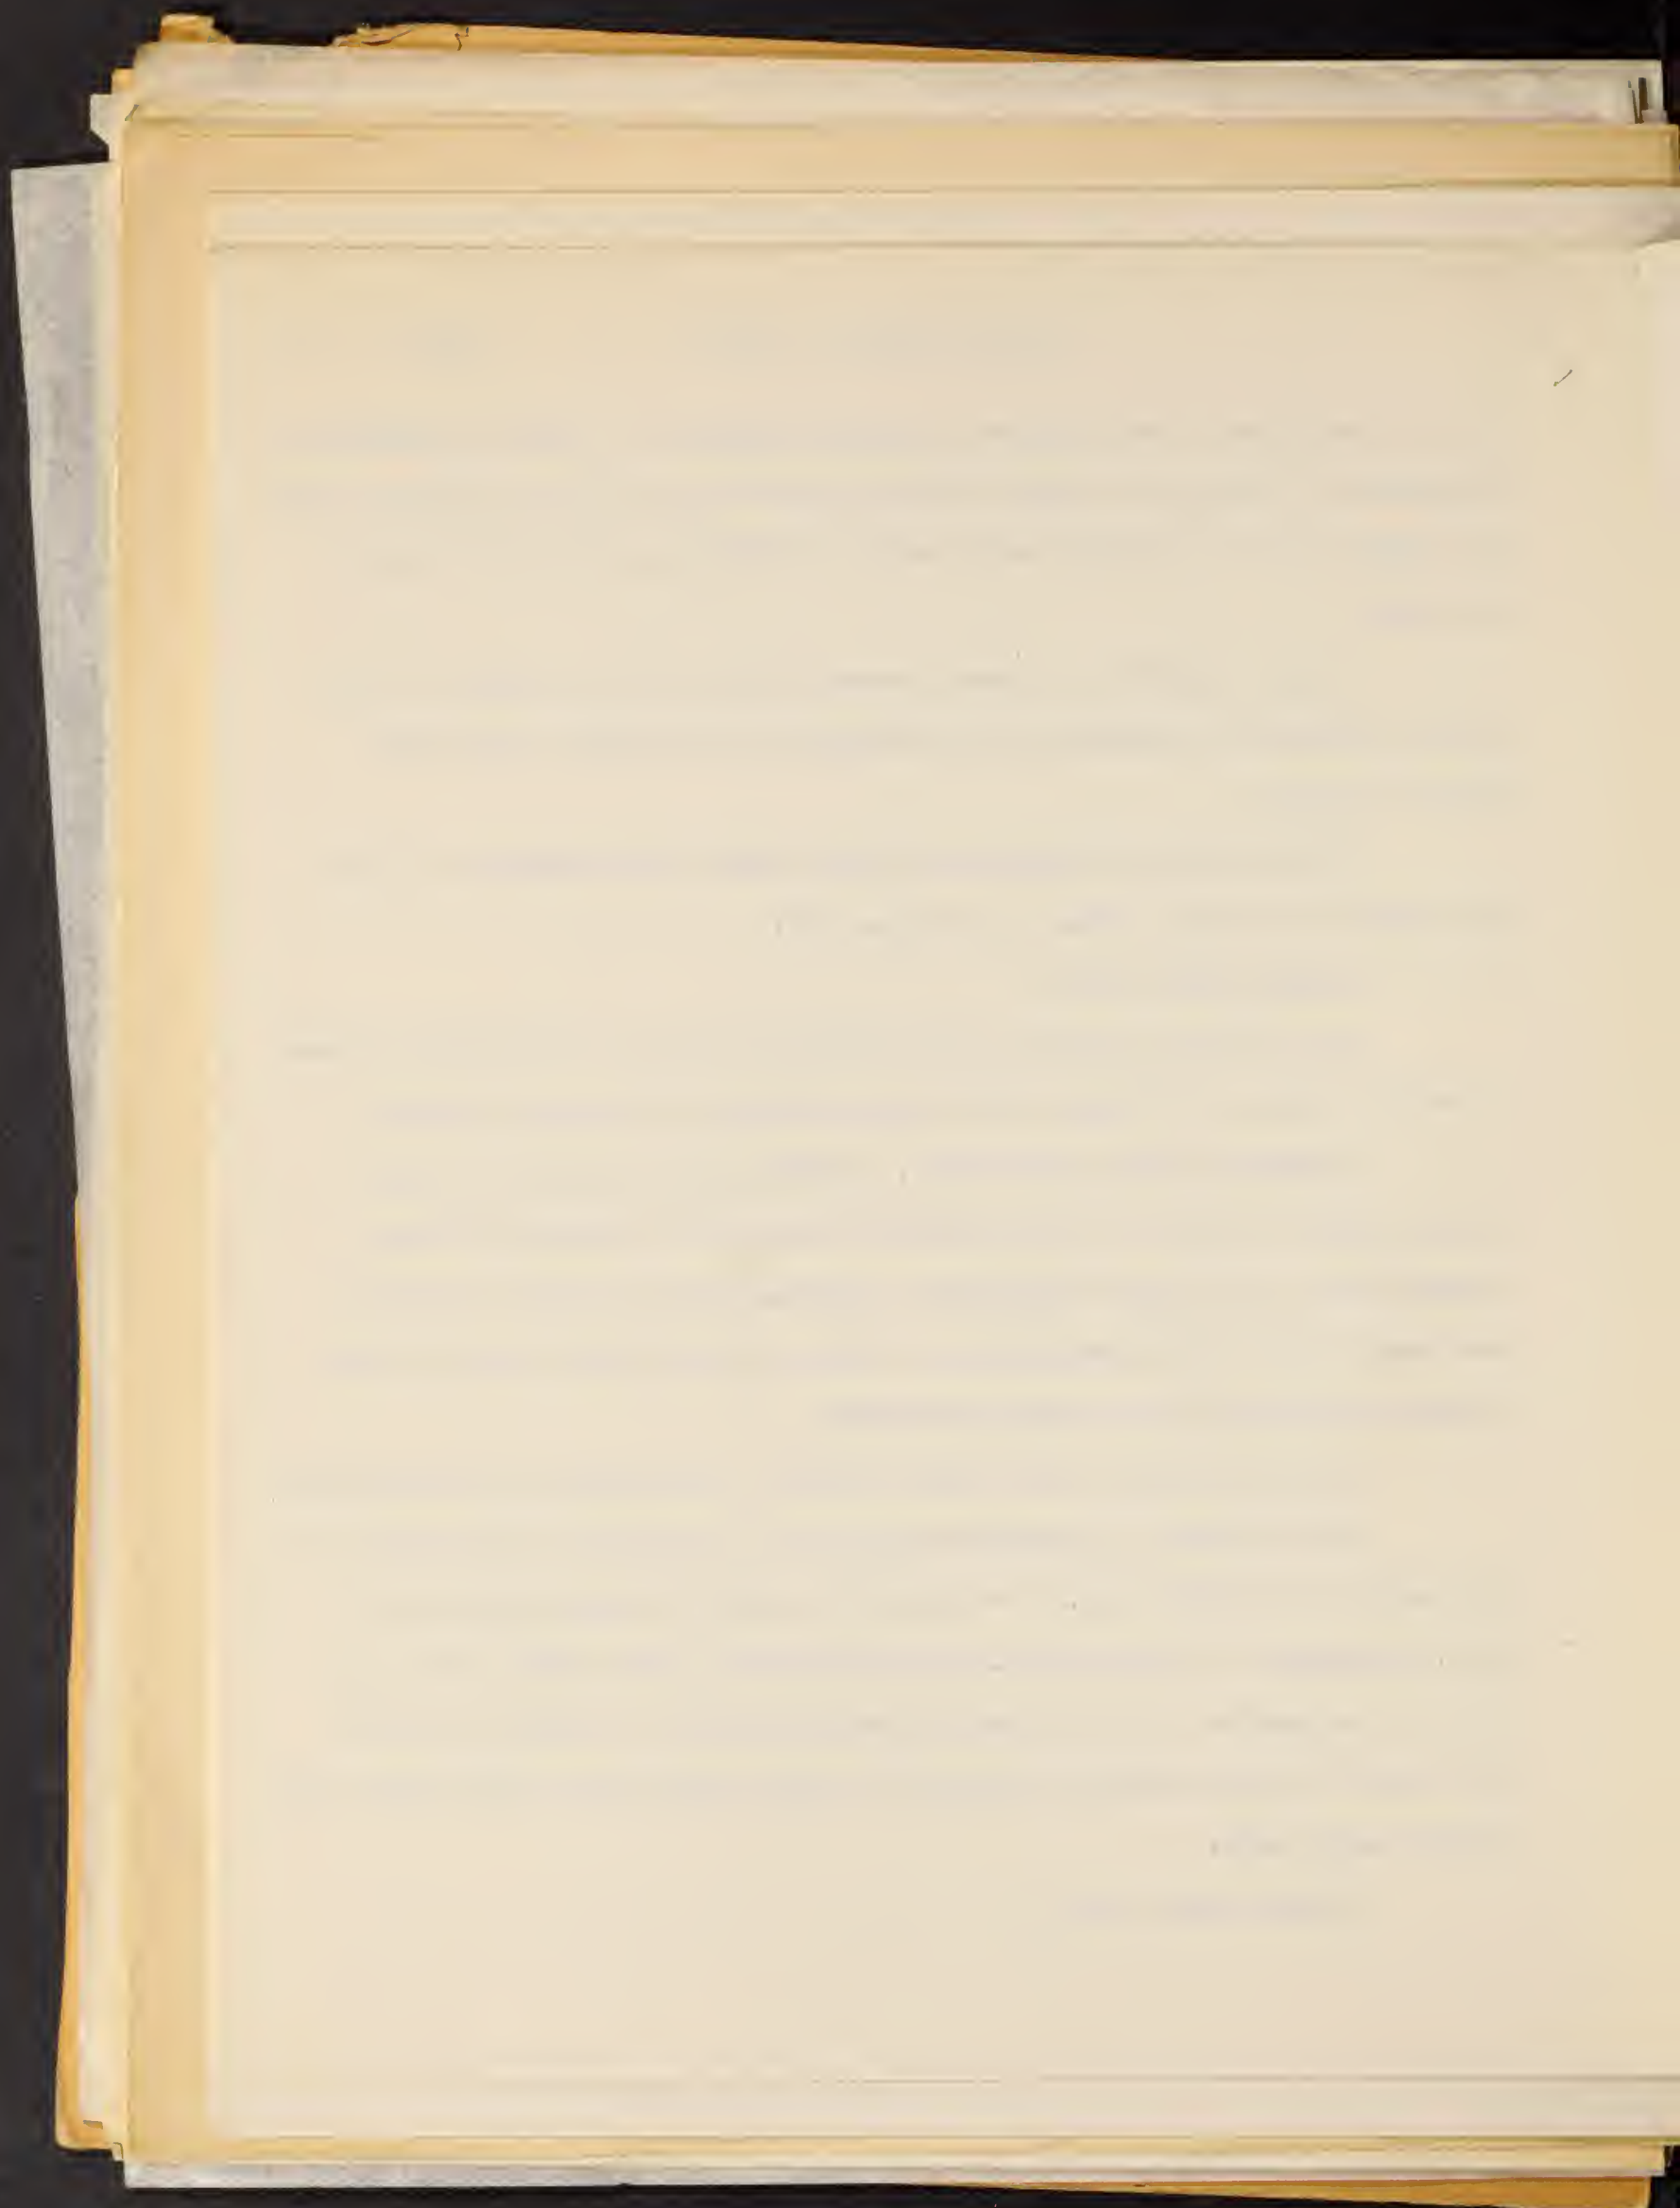

Knew Claimt. At first of the troubles he was one of the American Committee men. Bels. he went once to New York as member of Provincial Congress.

Remembers that he joined Genl. Burgoyne's Army. Thinks him Loyal. While a Committee man he did all he could to favour the Loyalists. He was a Commissioner at the Board of Regulation. Continued with the Army till Geb. B. was taken. He did not go immediately to Canada, but got Leave to go & see his friends in Vermont. Came to Canada afterwards.

He had some care of providing cloathing & Provisions for the Loyalists.

Knew his farm in Manchester. Had heard it called 170 or 180 acres; in the centre of the town. Vals. it at 18 pr. acre. This has been confiscated & sold. One Munson is in possession. Has heard he had another farm of about 130 acres in Manchester. It is good land. Witness has past by it. Vals. it at 13 pr. acre. It is not improved so much as the other. Witness has heard Claimt. has several other farms.

Timothy Lovel, Wits.:

Knew Claimt. when he resided in township of Manchester. Heard that he joined Gen. Burgoyne. Knows the place where Munson now lives. Heard it was Claimt.'s property before he went off & sold by Commrs.; land in two pieces worth about 16 pr. acre. Knew his other farm in Manchester Township, out of the Town. This has been sold by Commrs. Worth about 50 sh. pr. acre. Saw Claimt.'s wife & family. Are now in the States, upon property late his Father's.

Stephen Burnet, Wits.:

Knew Claimt. Has often heard that No. 5 belonged to Claimant.

Capt. Jonathan Jones, Wits.:

Says he saw Wm. Marsh in Canada, 1783. He had then returned from Vermont. Said he had suffd. little by the War & had regained Possession of his Property & was determined to return back & reside in Vermont.

Farther Evidence in the Case of Wm. Marsh, V. Vol. 4, P. 95.

Claimt. produces Certificates from John Collins, D. Surv., dated 6 Sep., 1787, that Claimt., his wife & 6 Children being entitled as Loyalists to 850 acres.

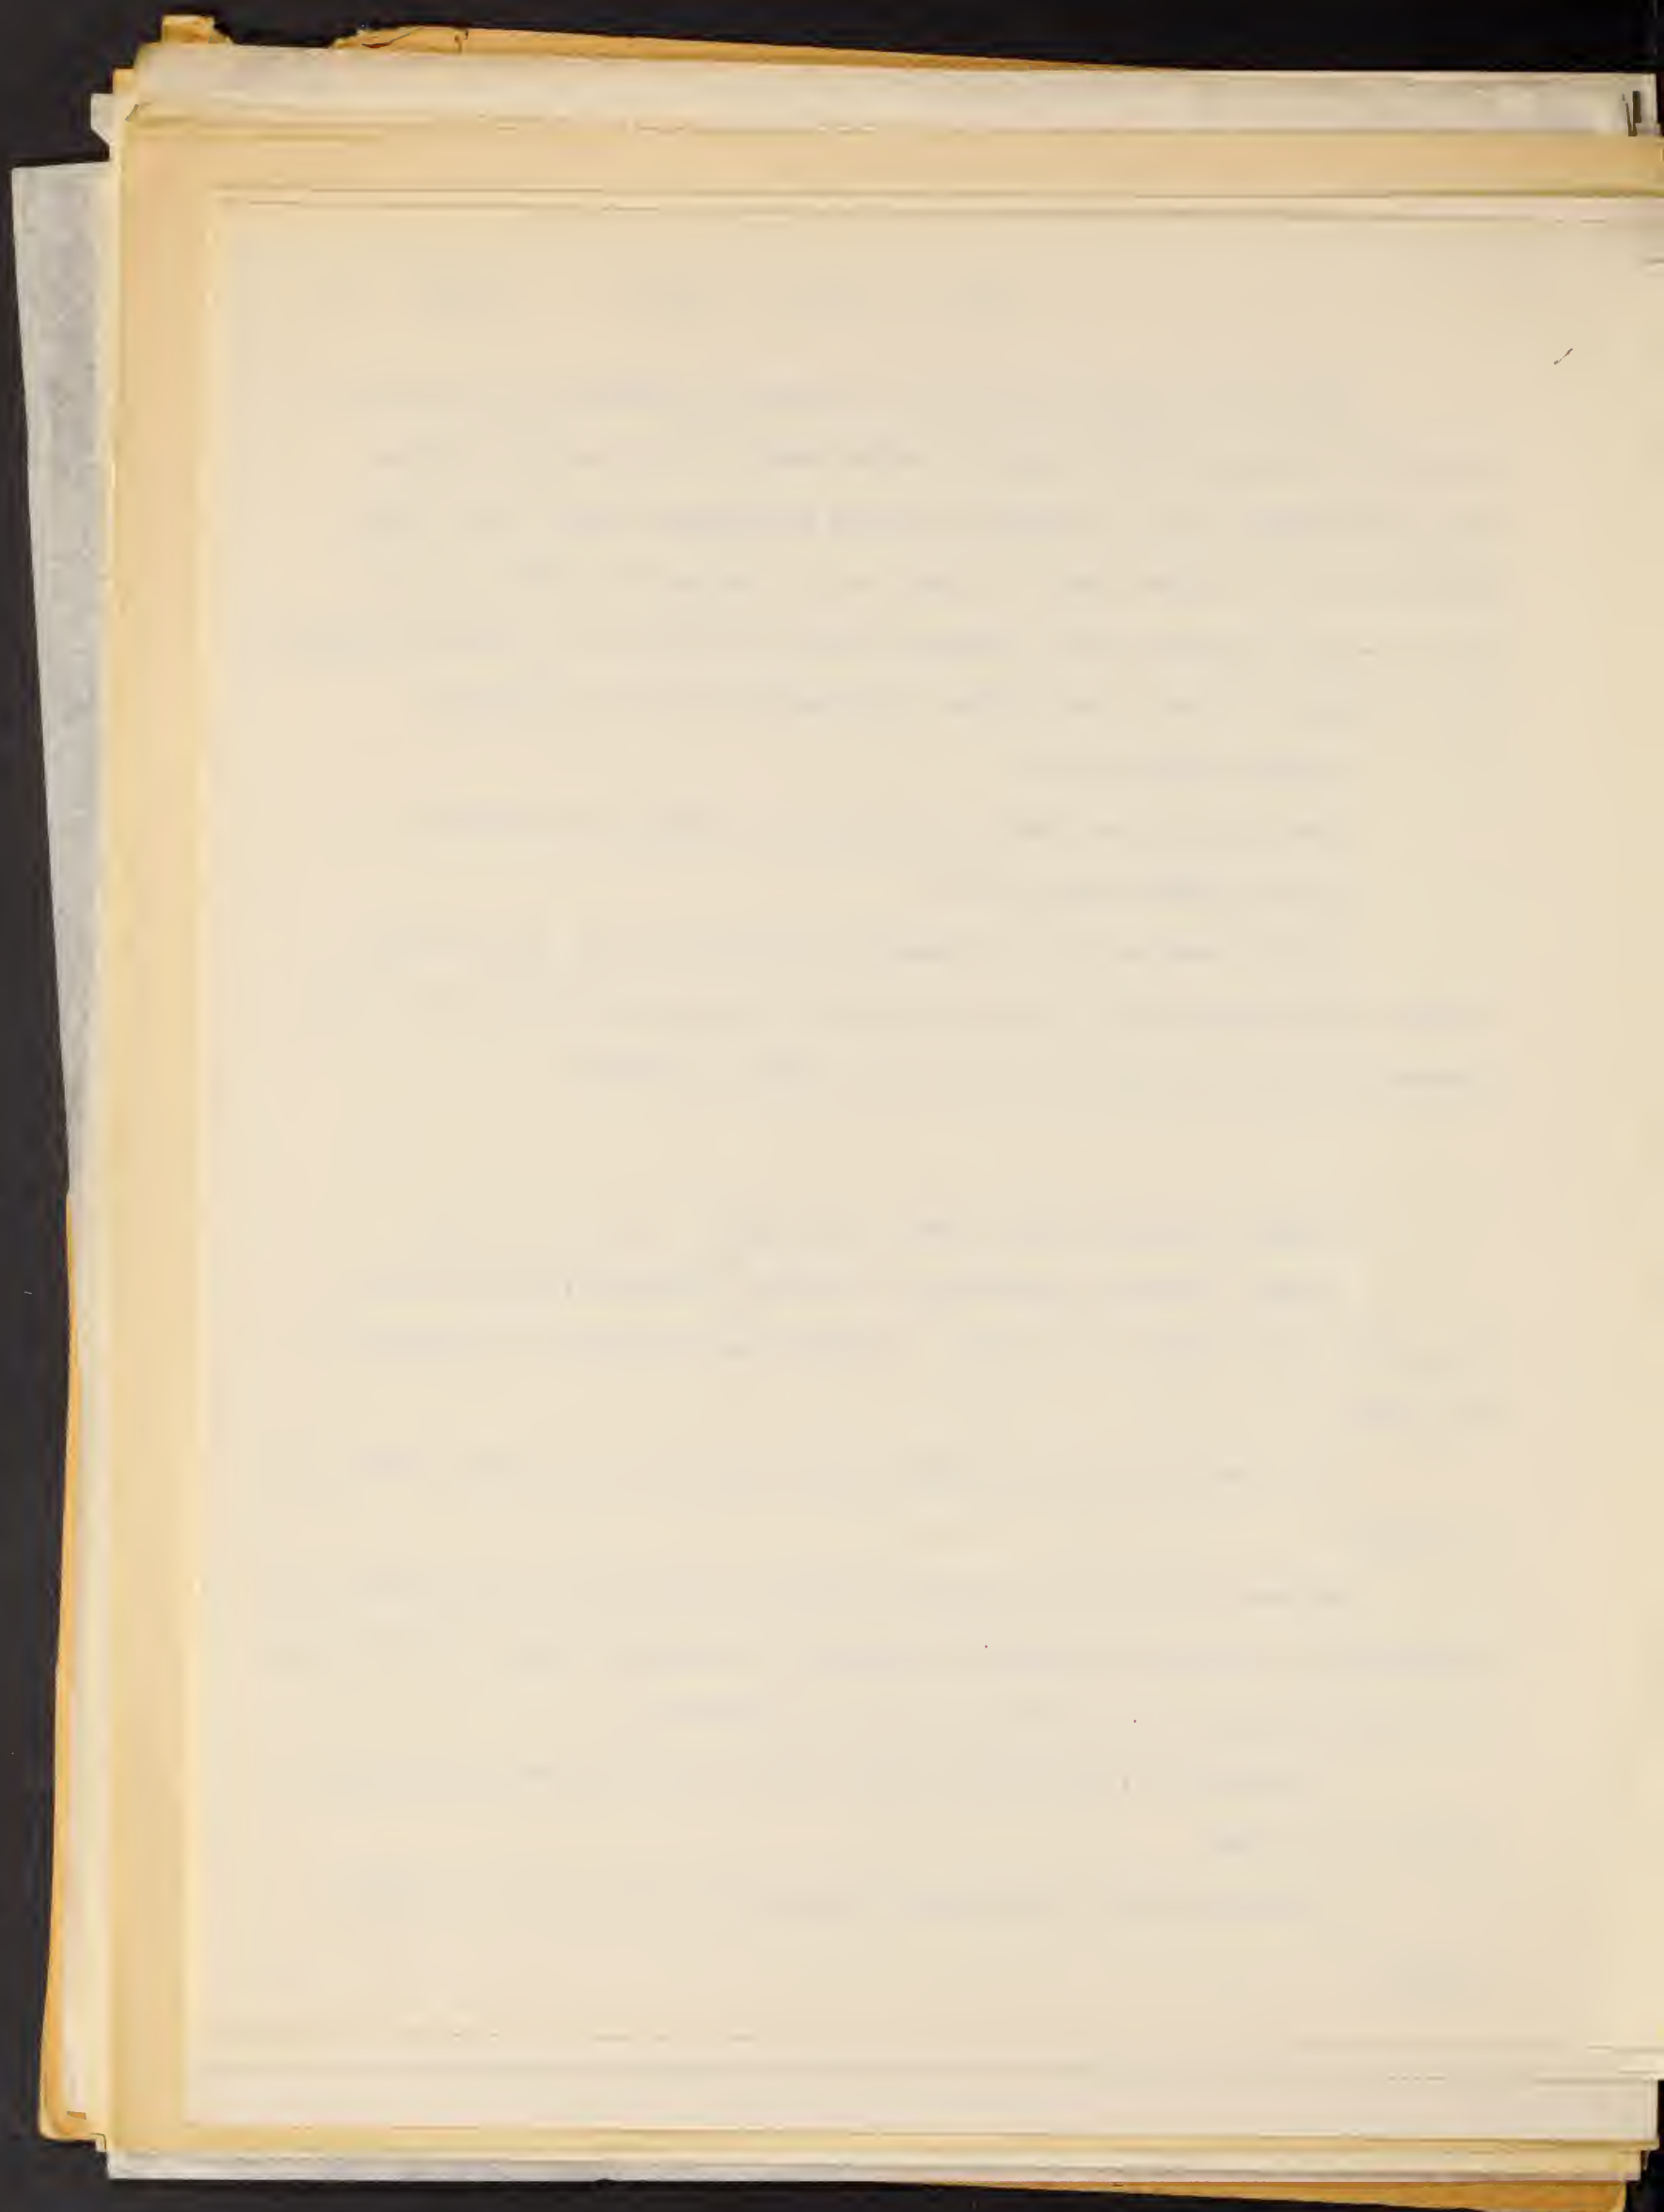

Had drawn 400 in 8th Township, Bay of Quinty, & is to have a Patent in 12 months.

Claimt. says he has recovered nothing of what was his own Estate, has recovered for Children his Father's Property & got back his Bonds & Notes. Says his Father's Lands were in Dorset, his own in Manchester.

Produces Genl. Haldimand's Pass to go in ye Provinces on his private affairs, May, '83.

Produces Letters from General Haldimand who seems to have employd Claimt.

Claimt. in looking out for Lands for Loyalists. Mentions in one of his Letters in '84 that he had leave to go to his Family. His family were then in Vermont.

His family are now in Vermont but he means to fetch them.

Capt. Covel, Wits.:

Says that he bels. Claimt. did not recover any of the Lands which were his own property.

Quebec,
804. Abraham Marsh, late of Albany County. ~~Montreal~~, June 30, 1787.

Claimt. says: He was at Carleton Island in the Fall of 83. He was discharged there from the 84th Regt.

He is a native of America. Resided at Shaftesbury, Albany Co., at present Vermont, but used to be called Albany Co. Joined the Brit. in 1777, served with Genl Burgoyne, was with him at Saratoga. Afterward joined 1st Batal. 84. Served with them as private during the War. Now settled in Johnstown.

He had a house Lot at Shaftesbury, bought it 14 years ago for L16. He built a house & Shop, had a Bark Mill & Tan House.

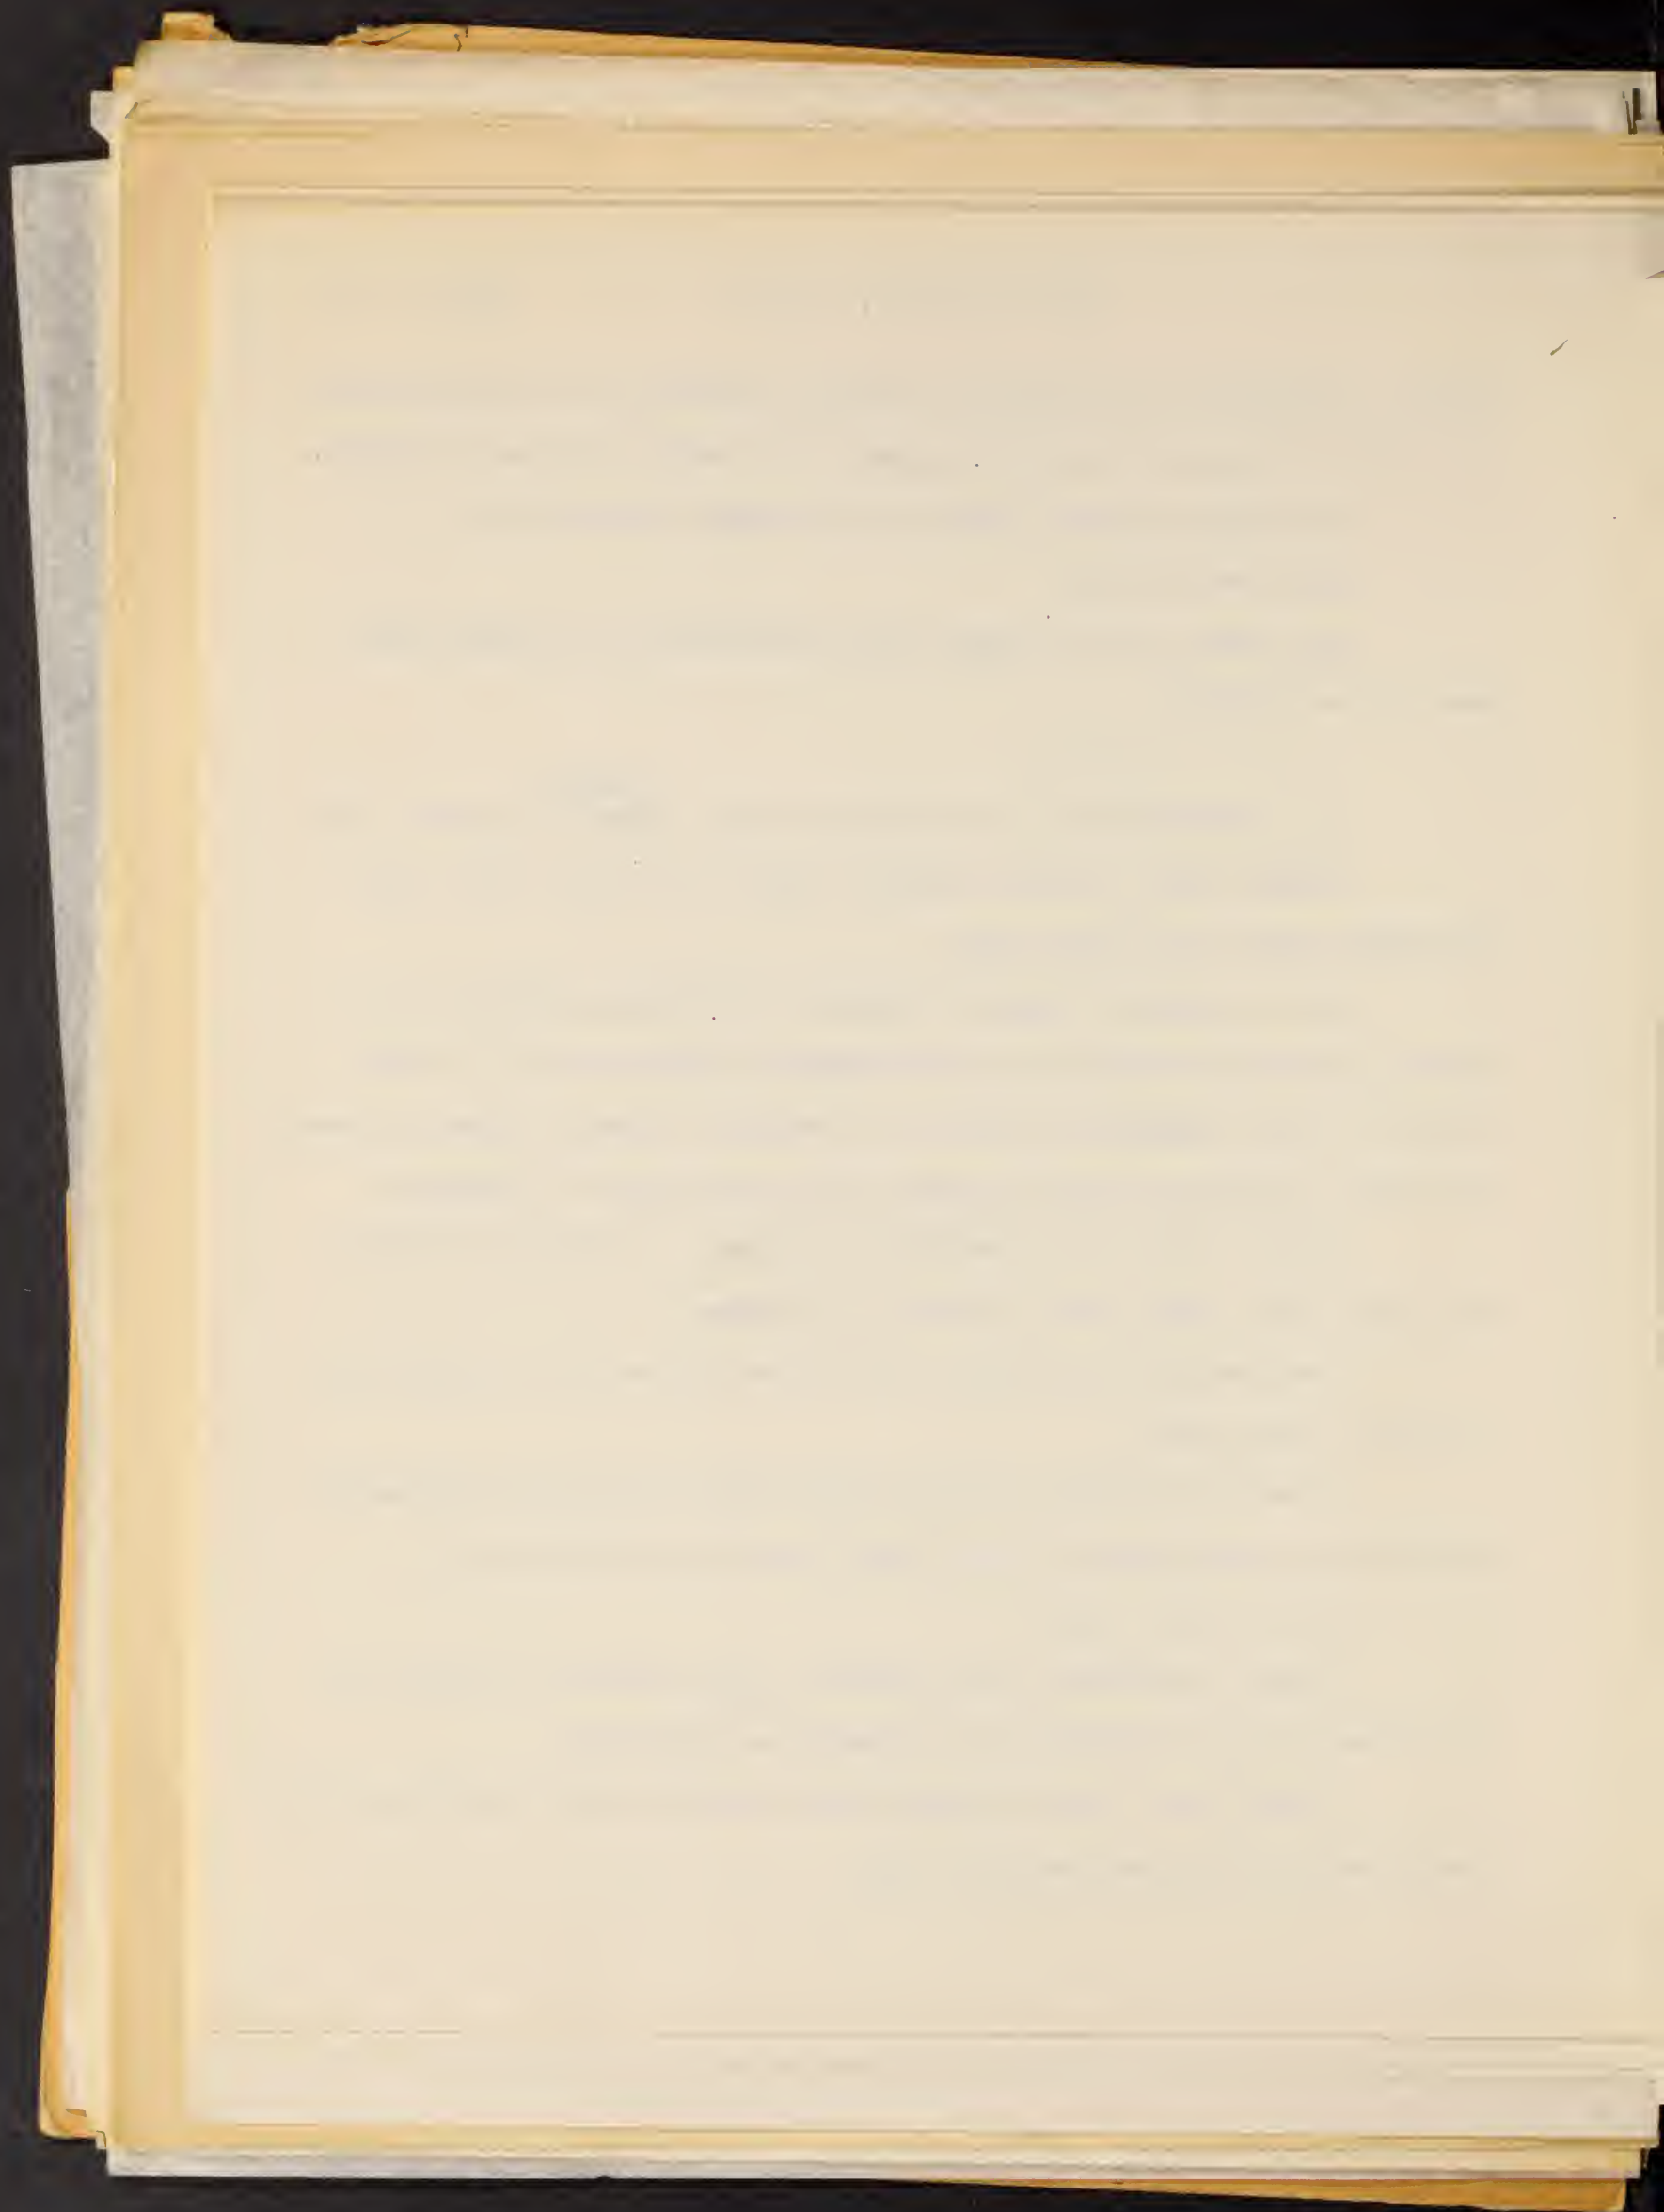

Produces Certificates by 2 persons that Claimt. lost by Confiscation to amnt. of L280 Lawful.

Produces Certificate from Thos. Chittenden that Claimt.'s Estate at Shaftsbury was Confiscated. He left a good many hides, thinks about 60.

Capt. Covel, Wits.:

Speaks particularly of his Loyalty, & good character. He had a Lot with exceeding good Preparations for a Tannery at Shaftesbury.

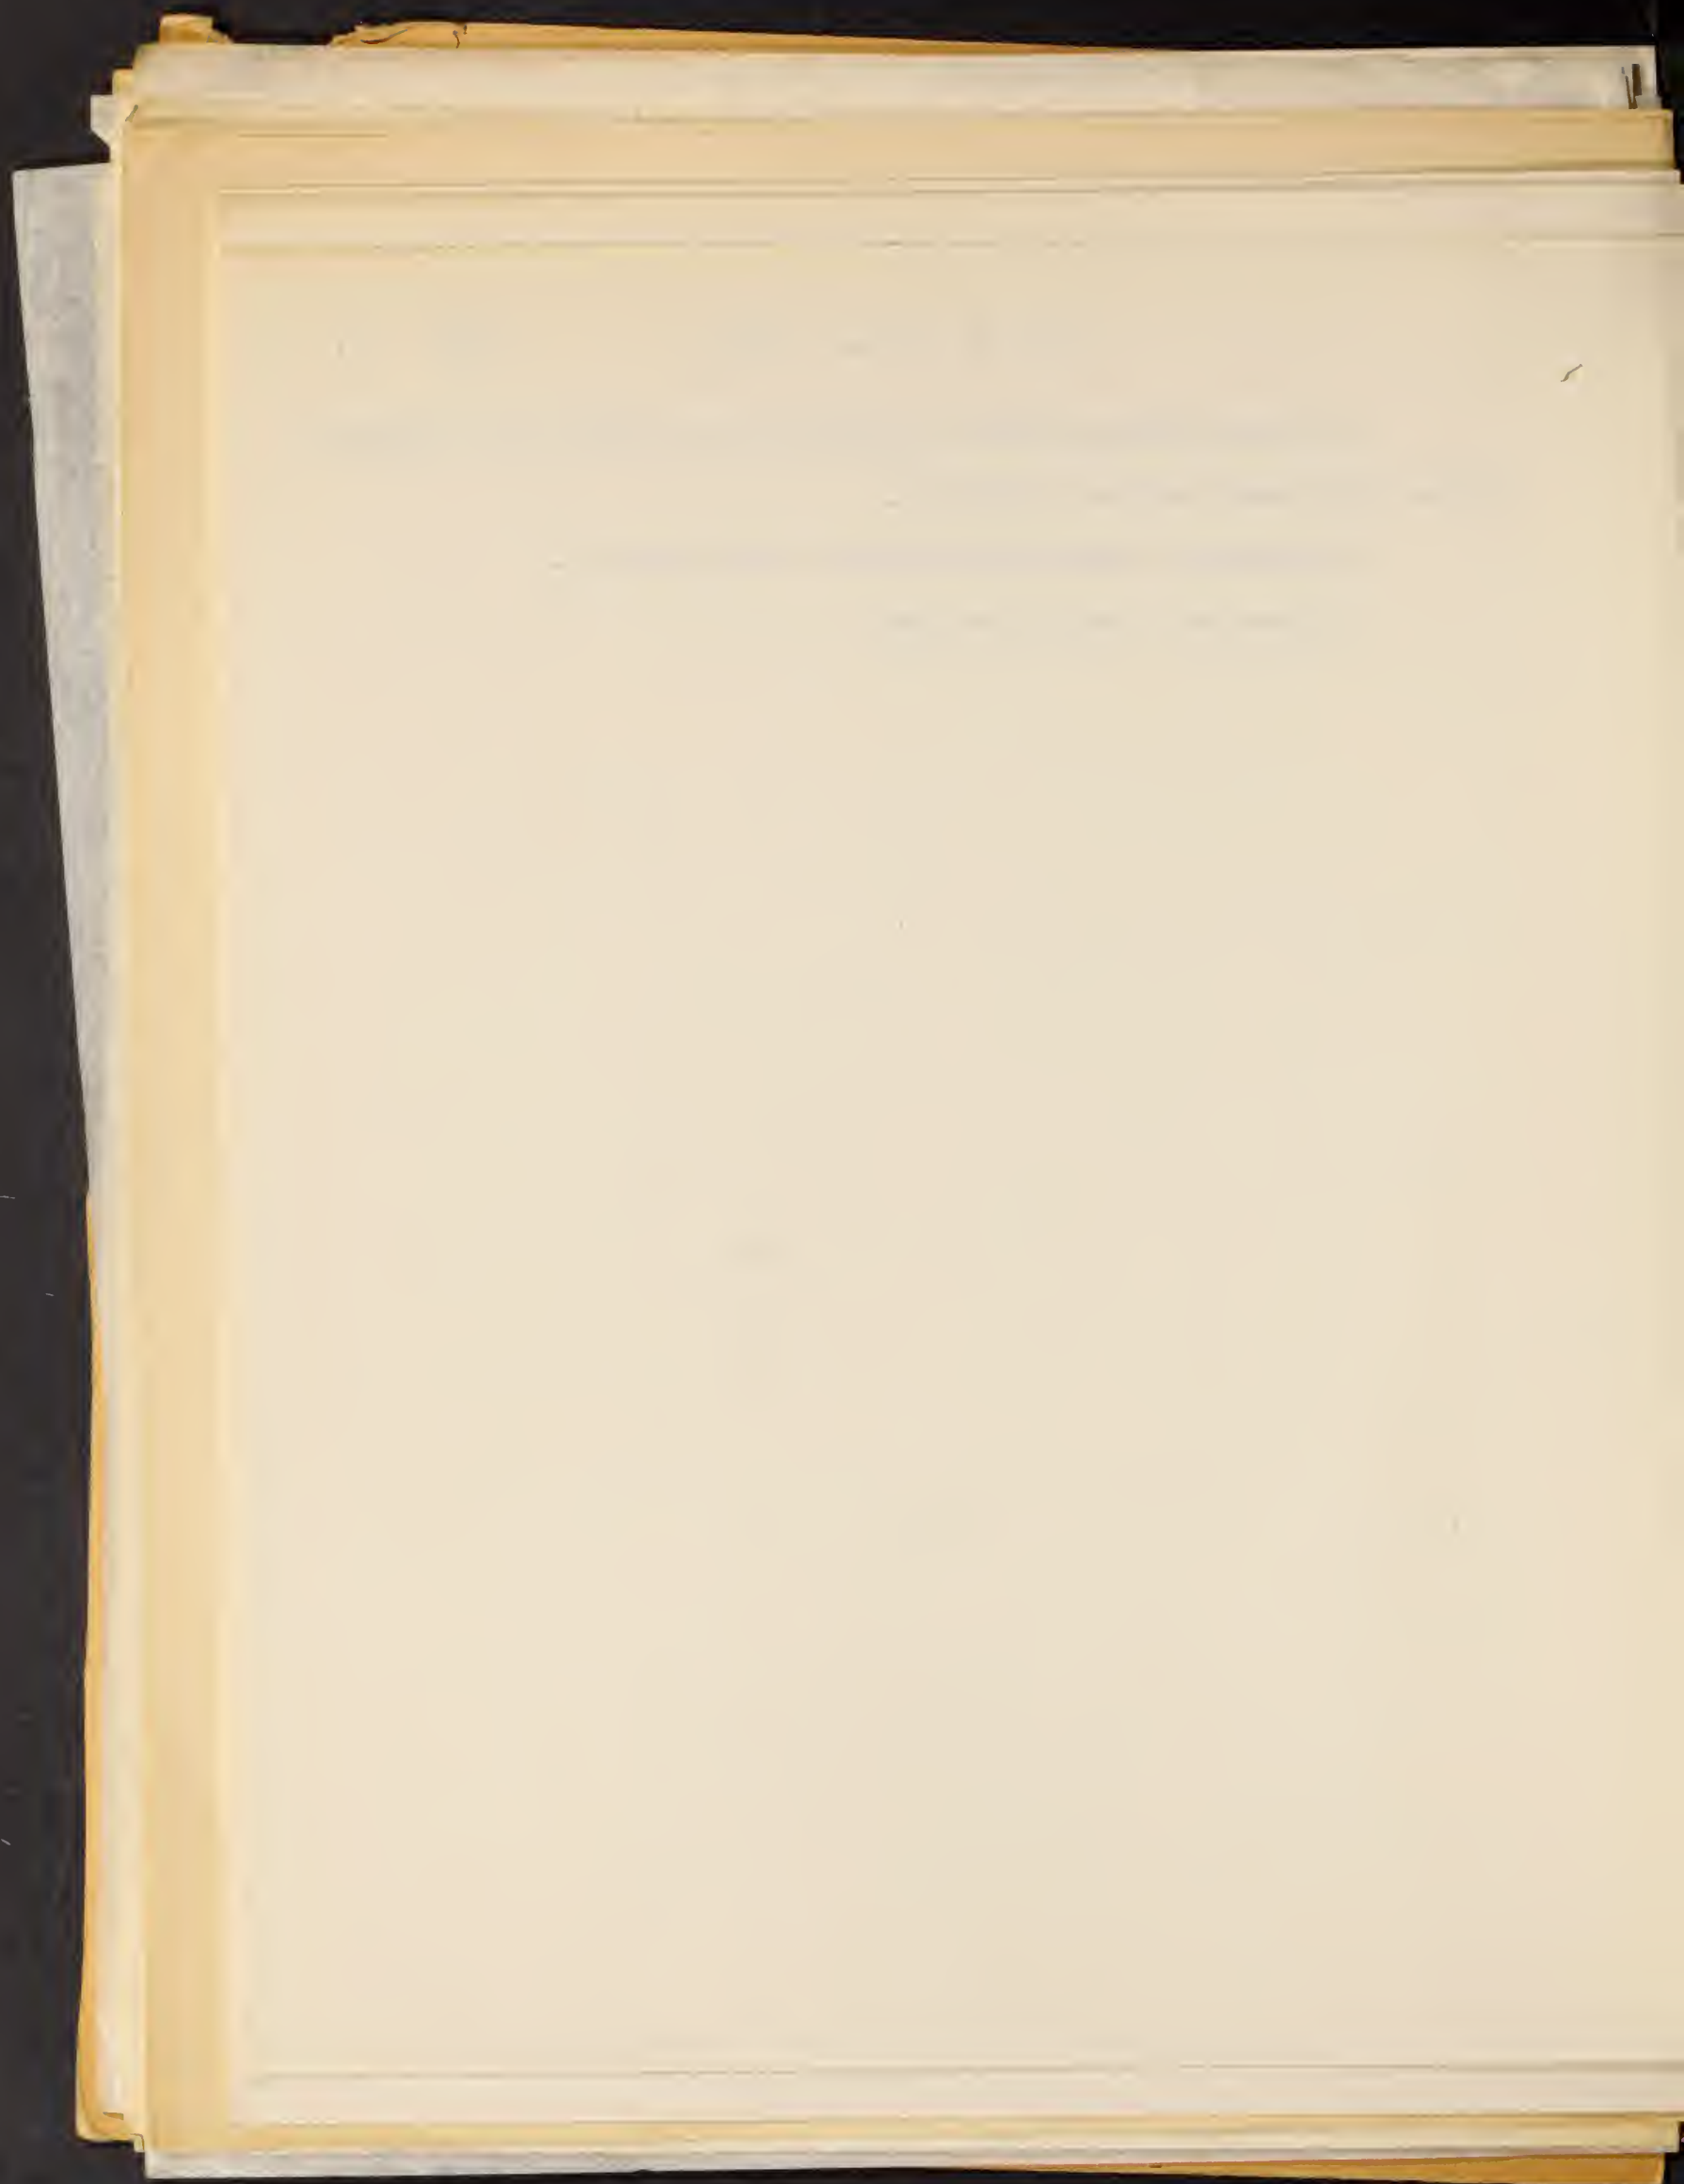

Witness says: That in Vermont State they have paid no attention to New York Grants, considering them as no Title

They have Confiscated when the Claim has been under the New Hampshire Grants, considering them as a good Title.

Gives Claimt. a very good character in every Respect.

Marginal Note: Seems a fair man.

PUBLIC ARCHIVES OF CANADA Series 3-1, Upper Canada

To His Excellency the Right Honourable Guy Lord Dorchester, Capt. Genl. Governor & Commander in Chief of the Colonies Quebec, Nova Scotia &c.

The memorial of William Marsh, having acted as an officer for the Loyalist for the Loyalist families, Humbly Sheweth

That your Lordship's Memorialist being by his Majesty's Instructions entitled to eight hundred and fifty acres of land for himself and family consisting of a wife and six children; as also two hundred acres additional bounty of 1787 of which he has drawn already four hundred acres, Humbly prays for the additional grants, as acting officer, for the Loyalist families to put him upon a footing with officers with equal rank in the 84th Regiment.

Your Lordship's Memorialist prays that two thousand one hundred and fifty acres may be assigned him in Ameliasburgh.

And your Memorialist as in duty bound will ever pray.

Kingston Oct. 21st, 1789

William Marsh

Report on Ontario Archives, 22 June 1793, p.36

At the Council Chamber, Navy Hall.

Wm. Marsh, Senior, memorial praying for a grant of land in the Township of Ameliasburgh, County of Prince Edward, about five mile distance southeasterly of south landing of the Carrying Place on a small stream of water which discharges itself at the head of the Bay of Quinte into Lake Ontario with permission to erect a sawmill upon the said stream. Ordered that the same be granted and in conformity to the memorial, that the surveyor is directed to assign Mr. Marsh six hundred and fifty acres of land mentioned in the certificate- and that a letter be written to Mr. Baker to recommend that Matthias Marsh, Samuel Marsh and Assey Heller may continue on their improvements in the Township of Murray.
